

English B1 Words: 2,139 Words (Intermediate)

All 2,139 English B1 words, each with its meaning and an example sentence: words to explain plans, experiences, and opinions with confidence. Practice them out loud with your AI language tutor to make them stick.

2,139 words

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1	abandon	verb	leave behind, give up	They had to abandon the car in the snow.
2	able	adjective	having the skill to do	She is able to speak three languages fluently.
3	abnormal	adjective	not normal, unusual	The doctor noticed an abnormal heartbeat during the test.
4	aboard	adverb	on a ship, train, or plane	All passengers must be aboard before the plane departs.
5	aborigine	noun	original native inhabitant, esp. Australian	The aborigine shared ancient stories passed down for generations.
6	absence	noun	state of being away	Her absence from the meeting surprised all the managers.
7	absent	adjective	not present, away	Three students were absent from class this morning.
8	absolute	adjective	complete, total	The team achieved absolute victory in the final match.
9	absolutely	adverb	completely, totally	I absolutely love the new design of the app.
10	absorb	verb	soak up, take in	The towel can absorb a lot of water quickly.
11	abstract	adjective	existing as an idea, not physical	Love is an abstract concept that is hard to define.
12	abundance	noun	a very large quantity	The farm produced an abundance of fresh vegetables this year.
13	abundant	adjective	existing in large quantities	Rain was abundant during the spring season this year.
14	academic	adjective	relating to education or study	She has an impressive academic record from university.
15	academy	noun	school for special training	He joined a military academy after finishing high school.
16	accent	noun	distinctive way of pronouncing words	She speaks English with a strong French accent.
17	acceptance	noun	act of agreeing to accept	His acceptance into the university made his parents proud.
18	access	noun	means to enter or use something	Students need a card to gain access to the library.
19	accessible	adjective	able to be reached or used easily	The new building is accessible to people in wheelchairs.
20	accessory	noun	extra item added to something	She bought a matching accessory for her new dress.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
21	accidental	adjective	happening by chance, not planned	The fire was caused by an accidental spark from the stove.
22	accidentally	adverb	by chance, not on purpose	I accidentally deleted an important file from my computer.
23	accompany	verb	go with someone, escort	My father will accompany me to the doctor tomorrow.
24	accomplish	verb	achieve or complete successfully	She worked hard to accomplish her career goals this year.
25	according to	preposition	as stated by, based on	According to the weather report, it will rain tomorrow.
26	accountant	noun	person who manages financial records	The accountant checked all the company's records carefully.
27	accuracy	noun	quality of being correct, precise	The report was praised for its accuracy and detail.
28	accurate	adjective	correct and precise	We need an accurate translation of this legal document.
29	accurately	adverb	correctly, precisely	The map shows the route accurately for hikers.
30	accuse	verb	claim someone did something wrong	They accused him of stealing money from the office.
31	accustom	verb	make used to something	It took months to accustom myself to the new schedule.
32	ache	noun	continuous dull pain	I have a terrible ache in my lower back today.
33	achievement	noun	something accomplished successfully	Winning the award was a great achievement for the team.
34	acknowledge	verb	accept or admit something is true	He finally acknowledged that he had made a mistake.
35	acknowledgment	noun	act of accepting something as true	She received an acknowledgment letter for her donation.
36	acquaintance	noun	person one knows slightly	He is just an acquaintance, not a close friend.
37	acquire	verb	gain or obtain something	The company plans to acquire a smaller software startup.
38	active	adjective	energetic, engaged in activity	My grandmother stays active by walking every morning.
39	actress	noun	female actor in film or theater	The actress won an award for her latest film role.
40	ad	noun	advertisement	I saw an ad for a new phone on television.
41	adapt	verb	adjust to new conditions	Animals must adapt quickly to survive in the wild.
42	addressee	noun	person a letter is sent to	The addressee must sign for the package upon delivery.
43	administration	noun	management of a business or government	The new administration promised to improve public schools.
44	admiration	noun	feeling of respect and approval	The crowd watched the dancer with great admiration.
45	admission	noun	entry permission, or a confession	Admission to the museum is free on Sundays.
46	adopt	verb	take a child as your own, or take up	They decided to adopt a child from another country.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
47	adorable	adjective	inspiring great affection, cute	The puppy looked adorable sleeping in its little bed.
48	advance	verb	move forward, make progress	The soldiers began to advance slowly toward the town.
49	adverb	noun	word that describes a verb or adjective	In this sentence, 'quickly' is an adverb.
50	adverbial	adjective	functioning as or relating to an adverb	The phrase acts as an adverbial modifier in the sentence.
51	advert	noun	advertisement (British)	The magazine has a large advert on the back cover.
52	advertise	verb	promote a product publicly	The company will advertise its new phone on television.
53	adviser	noun	person who gives advice	Her financial adviser recommended saving more money each month.
54	aerobics	noun	exercise set to music for fitness	She takes an aerobics class three times a week.
55	affect	verb	have an influence or effect on	The bad weather will affect our travel plans tomorrow.
56	affection	noun	gentle feeling of fondness or love	The dog showed great affection toward its new owner.
57	afford	verb	have enough money for something	We cannot afford a new car this year.
58	afterward	adverb	later, after that	We had dinner and went to the cinema afterward.
59	afterwards	adverb	later, after that	She studied hard and relaxed afterwards with her friends.
60	agenda	noun	list of items to be discussed	The budget is the first item on today's agenda.
61	aggressive	adjective	ready to attack, hostile	The dog became aggressive when strangers approached the house.
62	agreement	noun	mutual arrangement or contract	Both companies signed the agreement after months of talks.
63	agricultural	adjective	relating to farming	The region depends heavily on agricultural exports for income.
64	agriculture	noun	the practice of farming	Agriculture remains the main industry in this small country.
65	aid	noun	help, assistance	The government sent aid to the flooded villages.
66	aim	noun	purpose or goal	Our main aim is to improve customer satisfaction this year.
67	air conditioning	noun	system that cools indoor air	The office installed air conditioning before the summer heat.
68	air force	noun	military branch using aircraft	Her brother joined the air force after graduating college.
69	airline	noun	company providing air travel	The airline canceled several flights due to the storm.
70	alcohol	noun	drinks containing ethanol	He decided to give up alcohol for his health.
71	alcoholic	adjective	containing alcohol	The bar serves both alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
72	alike	adjective	similar, resembling each other	The twins look so alike that people often confuse them.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
73	allergic	adjective	having a bad reaction to a substance	She is allergic to peanuts and always checks food labels.
74	allowance	noun	sum of money given regularly	Parents give their children a small allowance each week.
75	aloud	adverb	spoken so it can be heard	The teacher asked him to read the poem aloud.
76	alphabet	noun	set of letters used in a language	Children learn the alphabet before they start reading books.
77	alternative	adjective	available as another option	We need to find an alternative route because of traffic.
78	altogether	adverb	completely, or in total	The trip cost three hundred dollars altogether.
79	amazed	adjective	filled with great surprise	I was amazed by the size of the ancient castle.
80	amazing	adjective	causing great surprise, wonderful	The view from the mountain top was absolutely amazing.
81	ambitious	adjective	having a strong desire to succeed	She is an ambitious young lawyer with big career goals.
82	ambulance	noun	vehicle for transporting the injured or sick	An ambulance rushed the injured man to the hospital.
83	amount	noun	a quantity of something	A small amount of sugar makes the coffee taste better.
84	amusing	adjective	causing laughter, entertaining	He told an amusing story about his trip abroad.
85	analysis	noun	detailed examination of something	The report includes a detailed analysis of sales figures.
86	analyze	verb	examine something in detail	Scientists will analyze the water samples for pollution.
87	anger	noun	strong feeling of annoyance	He struggled to control his anger during the argument.
88	angle	noun	space between two lines that meet	Measure the angle between the two walls carefully.
89	animated	adjective	lively, or made with animation	Kids love watching the new animated movie about dinosaurs.
90	animation	noun	technique of making moving images	The studio spent two years creating the film's animation.
91	announce	verb	make something known publicly	The company will announce its new product next week.
92	announcement	noun	a public statement	The teacher made an announcement about the exam schedule.
93	annoyance	noun	feeling of slight anger	To my annoyance, the bus arrived twenty minutes late.
94	annoyed	adjective	slightly angry	She looked annoyed when her phone battery died again.
95	annual	adjective	happening once every year	The company holds an annual meeting for all employees.
96	annually	adverb	once every year	The festival is held annually in the town square.
97	ant	noun	small insect living in colonies	A line of ants marched across the kitchen floor.
98	anti	adjective	opposed to something	He wore an anti war badge on his jacket.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
99	antique	noun	old valuable object	She collects antiques from the eighteenth century.
100	antonym	noun	word opposite in meaning to another	The antonym of 'hot' is 'cold' in English.
101	anxiety	noun	feeling of worry or nervousness	He felt a wave of anxiety before the job interview.
102	anxiously	adverb	in a worried, nervous way	She waited anxiously for the results of the test.
103	anyhow	adverb	in any case, regardless	It was raining, but we went to the park anyhow.
104	ape	noun	large tailless primate	The zoo built a new habitat for its ape exhibit.
105	apology	noun	statement expressing regret	He wrote a sincere apology to his old friend.
106	apparent	adjective	clearly visible or understood	It became apparent that the plan would not work.
107	appeal	noun	attractive quality, or serious request	The old house has a certain rustic appeal.
108	appetite	noun	natural desire for food	A long walk always gives me a huge appetite.
109	applaud	verb	clap hands to show approval	The audience began to applaud as the singer finished.
110	applause	noun	approval shown by clapping	Loud applause filled the theater after the final scene.
111	application	noun	formal request, or software program	She submitted her application for the marketing position.
112	appoint	verb	choose someone for a job	The board decided to appoint a new company director.
113	appreciation	noun	recognition of the value of something	She showed her appreciation with a warm thank you note.
114	approach	noun	a way of dealing with something	The teacher tried a new approach to explain grammar.
115	approval	noun	official agreement or permission	The project needs approval from the city council first.
116	approve	verb	officially agree to something	The committee will approve the budget next Monday.
117	approximately	adverb	roughly, about	The journey takes approximately three hours by car.
118	architect	noun	person who designs buildings	The architect designed a modern glass office tower.
119	arise	verb	come into being, occur	New problems arise whenever the software is updated.
120	arithmetic	noun	branch of math dealing with numbers	The young students practiced basic arithmetic every morning.
121	army	noun	organized military land force	He served in the army for almost ten years.
122	arrange	verb	organize or plan something	We need to arrange a meeting with the new client.
123	arrangement	noun	a plan or preparation	They made an arrangement to meet at the station.
124	arrest	noun	act of seizing someone under legal authority	The police made an arrest shortly after the robbery.
125	arrival	noun	the act of arriving	The arrival of the train was delayed by twenty minutes.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
126	arrow	noun	pointed weapon shot from a bow, or symbol	Follow the arrow on the sign to find the exit.
127	artist	noun	person who creates art	The artist spent months painting the large mural.
128	artistic	adjective	having natural skill in art	Her artistic talent was obvious from a very young age.
129	ashamed	adjective	feeling embarrassed or guilty	He felt ashamed after forgetting his sister's birthday.
130	aside	adverb	to one side, away	She stepped aside to let the nurse pass.
131	aspect	noun	a particular part or feature	Safety is an important aspect of the new design.
132	aspirin	noun	common pain relieving drug	She took an aspirin to ease her headache.
133	assign	verb	give a task to someone	The teacher will assign homework at the end of class.
134	assignment	noun	a task given to someone	Students must submit the assignment by Friday afternoon.
135	assist	verb	help someone	Volunteers will assist elderly residents with their shopping.
136	assistance	noun	help or support	The charity offers financial assistance to struggling families.
137	associate	verb	connect in mind, or spend time with	People often associate the color red with danger.
138	assume	verb	suppose something without proof	I assume you already know about the schedule change.
139	astronomer	noun	scientist who studies stars and planets	The astronomer discovered a new planet last year.
140	athletic	adjective	physically strong and fit	He has an athletic build from years of training.
141	Atlantic	adjective	of the Atlantic Ocean	They sailed across the Atlantic Ocean last summer.
142	atmosphere	noun	gases around earth, or a mood	The restaurant has a warm and friendly atmosphere.
143	atomic	adjective	relating to atoms or atomic energy	The country built its first atomic power plant decades ago.
144	attach	verb	fasten or join one thing to another	Please attach your resume to the email.
145	attachment	noun	file joined to an email, or emotional bond	I forgot to open the attachment in her message.
146	attain	verb	succeed in achieving something	It took years of practice to attain such skill.
147	attend	verb	be present at an event	All employees must attend the safety training session.
148	attract	verb	draw attention or interest	The bright colors attract many insects to the flower.
149	attraction	noun	quality drawing interest, or tourist site	The old castle is the town's biggest tourist attraction.
150	authority	noun	power to give orders, or official body	The manager has the authority to approve new hires.
151	auxiliary	adjective	providing extra support, helping	The hospital uses an auxiliary generator during power cuts.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
152	available	adjective	able to be used or obtained	Tickets for the concert are still available online.
153	avenue	noun	a wide street, often tree lined	Their apartment is on a quiet avenue near the park.
154	aware	adjective	having knowledge of a situation	She wasn't aware that the meeting had been canceled.
155	awareness	noun	knowledge of a situation or fact	The campaign aims to raise awareness about ocean pollution.
156	awesome	adjective	extremely impressive, excellent	The fireworks display last night was absolutely awesome.
157	awkward	adjective	causing embarrassment, or hard to handle	There was an awkward silence after his strange comment.
158	babysit	verb	take care of children temporarily	My sister will babysit the twins on Saturday night.
159	babysitter	noun	person who cares for children temporarily	We hired a babysitter for Friday evening.
160	backache	noun	pain in the back	Sitting all day gave him a bad backache.
161	backpack	noun	bag carried on the back	She packed her backpack for the school camping trip.
162	backpacker	noun	traveler carrying a backpack	The hostel was full of young backpackers from Europe.
163	backpacking	noun	traveling carrying a backpack	They went backpacking through South America last summer.
164	bacon	noun	cured meat from a pig	He fried some bacon and eggs for breakfast.
165	baggage	noun	luggage carried while traveling	Please collect your baggage at the airport carousel.
166	baker	noun	person who makes bread	The local baker sells fresh bread every morning.
167	bakery	noun	shop that sells bread and cakes	We bought fresh croissants from the bakery on the corner.
168	balance	noun	state of equilibrium, or remaining money	She checked her bank account balance online this morning.
169	bald	adjective	having no hair on the head	The actor shaved his head to play a bald character.
170	bandage	noun	strip of cloth used to bind a wound	The nurse wrapped a bandage around his injured ankle.
171	bang	noun	a sudden loud noise	The door closed with a loud bang in the wind.
172	bank account	noun	arrangement with a bank to hold money	She opened a bank account when she started her new job.
173	bare	adjective	not covered, plain, empty	He walked across the hot sand with bare feet.
174	barely	adverb	only just, almost not	We barely made it to the airport before the flight left.
175	bark	noun	sharp sound a dog makes, or tree covering	The dog gave a loud bark at the mailman.
176	barman	noun	man who serves drinks in a bar	The barman mixed us two cocktails at the counter.
177	barrel	noun	large cylindrical container	The wine was aged for years in an oak barrel.
178	basement	noun	room below ground level	We store old furniture in the basement of our house.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
179	basin	noun	wide bowl for water, or river area	She filled the basin with warm water to wash dishes.
180	basis	noun	the foundation or reason for something	Trust is the basis of any strong relationship.
181	bathe	verb	wash oneself, or swim	They like to bathe in the cool river during summer.
182	battle	noun	a fight between armed forces	The soldiers fought a fierce battle near the border.
183	beard	noun	hair on a man's chin and cheeks	He grew a thick beard during the winter months.
184	beast	noun	a large or dangerous animal	The children were scared of the beast in the story.
185	beat	verb	hit repeatedly, or defeat	Our team managed to beat the champions in the final.
186	beautifully	adverb	in a beautiful manner	The garden was beautifully decorated for the wedding.
187	beaver	noun	large rodent that builds dams	The beaver built a dam across the small stream.
188	because of	preposition	as a result of	The game was canceled because of the heavy rain.
189	bedside	noun	the area beside a bed	She kept a lamp and book on her bedside table.
190	behalf	noun	as a representative of someone	He accepted the award on behalf of the whole team.
191	behave	verb	act in a particular way	The children behaved very well during the long flight.
192	belief	noun	a strong feeling something is true	It is her belief that hard work always pays off.
193	beloved	adjective	dearly loved	He dedicated the book to his beloved wife.
194	beneath	preposition	under, in a lower position	They found an old coin buried beneath the garden soil.
195	benefit	noun	an advantage or profit gained	Regular exercise has many benefits for your health.
196	bent	adjective	curved, not straight	The old fence had several bent metal posts.
197	bet	verb	risk money on an outcome	I bet you five dollars that our team will win.
198	bilingual	adjective	able to speak two languages fluently	Their children are raised bilingual, speaking English and Spanish.
199	bin	noun	container for rubbish	Please throw the wrapper in the bin over there.
200	biochemistry	noun	chemistry of living things	She is studying biochemistry to become a medical researcher.
201	biography	noun	written account of someone's life	I just finished reading a biography of Abraham Lincoln.
202	biology	noun	the study of living organisms	We are learning about cells in biology class today.
203	bishop	noun	senior member of the clergy	The bishop gave a speech during the church ceremony.
204	bitter	adjective	sharp unpleasant taste, or resentful	The coffee tasted too bitter without any sugar.
205	bleed	verb	lose blood from the body	His knee began to bleed after the bicycle fell.
206	blend	verb	mix together smoothly	Blend the flour and eggs until the batter is smooth.
207	bless	verb	ask for divine favor upon	The priest will bless the newborn baby on Sunday.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
208	blessing	noun	a prayer of favor, or something beneficial	Good health is truly a blessing at any age.
209	blind	adjective	unable to see	The blind man used a stick to find his way.
210	blog	noun	regularly updated personal website	She writes a blog about healthy cooking recipes.
211	blogger	noun	person who writes a blog	The blogger reviewed the new restaurant on her website.
212	blush	noun	red color in the face from embarrassment	A deep blush spread across her cheeks after the compliment.
213	boast	verb	talk with excessive pride	He likes to boast about his expensive new car.
214	bold	adjective	showing courage, or strong and clear	She made a bold decision to start her own business.
215	boldly	adverb	in a courageous manner	He boldly walked into the meeting and shared his idea.
216	bomb	noun	device designed to explode	The old bomb was safely removed from the field.
217	bond	noun	a strong connection, or financial certificate	The two sisters share a very close bond.
218	booking	noun	arrangement to reserve something	I made a booking for two nights at the hotel.
219	boom	noun	a period of rapid growth	The city experienced an economic boom in the 1990s.
220	boot	noun	heavy shoe covering the ankle	He wore thick boots to walk through the snow.
221	border	noun	line separating two areas or countries	The river marks the border between the two countries.
222	bore	verb	make someone feel uninterested	Long lectures always bore the younger students.
223	boredom	noun	the state of being bored	Boredom set in after hours of waiting at the airport.
224	bounce	verb	spring back after hitting a surface	The ball began to bounce down the concrete steps.
225	bound	adjective	certain to happen, or heading toward	The delayed train is bound for the central station.
226	bow	noun	weapon for arrows, or a bend of the body	The actors took a bow at the end of the play.
227	boxing	noun	sport involving fighting with fists	He trains in boxing at the gym three times a week.
228	bracelet	noun	jewelry worn on the wrist	She received a silver bracelet as a birthday gift.
229	brainstorming	noun	group technique for generating ideas	The team spent an hour brainstorming names for the product.
230	brand-new	adjective	completely new, unused	He drove home in his brand-new red car.
231	brass	noun	yellow metal alloy of copper and zinc	The old lamp was made of polished brass.
232	bravely	adverb	in a courageous manner	The firefighters bravely entered the burning building.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
233	breakthrough	noun	sudden important discovery or advance	Scientists made a major breakthrough in cancer research.
234	breast	noun	front chest area of a person or bird	The doctor listened to her breast with a stethoscope.
235	breath	noun	air taken into or out of the lungs	She took a deep breath before starting her speech.
236	breathless	adjective	out of breath, gasping	He arrived breathless after running up five flights of stairs.
237	breed	verb	produce offspring, or raise animals	Rabbits can breed very quickly in the wild.
238	breeding	noun	process of producing offspring	The farm specializes in the breeding of dairy cows.
239	brick	noun	rectangular block used for building	The workers laid brick after brick to build the wall.
240	brief	adjective	short in duration	She gave a brief summary of the meeting's main points.
241	briefly	adverb	for a short time	He briefly explained the rules before the game started.
242	brightly	adverb	in a shining or vivid manner	The stars shone brightly over the quiet desert.
243	broad	adjective	wide, covering a large area	The river has a broad stretch near the old bridge.
244	broadcast	noun	a radio or television transmission	The news broadcast covered the election results live.
245	broccoli	noun	green vegetable with a treelike shape	She steamed some broccoli to go with dinner.
246	bronze	noun	brown metal alloy of copper and tin	The statue was cast in solid bronze centuries ago.
247	brotherhood	noun	friendship between men, or an association	The soldiers formed a strong brotherhood during the war.
248	bubble	noun	thin sphere of liquid enclosing air	The children laughed as they blew soap bubbles outside.
249	buddy	noun	a close friend	He went camping with his old college buddy.
250	builder	noun	person whose job is to construct buildings	The builder finished the new house in six months.
251	bull	noun	adult male cattle	The farmer kept an angry bull in the field.
252	bullet	noun	small metal projectile fired from a gun	The bullet hit the wall and left a mark.
253	bulletin	noun	short official news report	We watched the news bulletin about the storm together.
254	bump	verb	hit something by accident	I bumped into an old friend at the market today.
255	bunch	noun	group of things together	She bought a bunch of bananas from the market stall.
256	burden	noun	heavy load or responsibility	Paying the rent alone became a heavy burden for him.
257	bureau	noun	office providing information or service	She works at the tourist bureau in the city center.
258	burglar	noun	person who breaks in to steal	The burglar climbed through an open window last night.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
259	burning	adjective	on fire, extremely hot	Firefighters rushed into the burning building to save people.
260	burst	verb	break open suddenly	The balloon burst loudly when the boy squeezed it.
261	bust	verb	break something, or catch someone illegal	Police busted the gang after months of careful investigation.
262	butcher	noun	person who sells meat	The butcher cut fresh meat for the waiting customers.
263	buyer	noun	person who buys something	The buyer paid cash for the used car yesterday.
264	cabbage	noun	round leafy green vegetable	She chopped the cabbage finely for the fresh salad.
265	cabin	noun	small wooden house or ship room	We rented a wooden cabin by the lake for summer.
266	cage	noun	enclosed structure for animals	The bird flew around inside its small metal cage.
267	calculate	verb	work out a number using math	Please calculate the total cost before we place the order.
268	calculation	noun	process of working out a number	His calculation of the total was wrong by ten dollars.
269	calculator	noun	device used to do calculations	She used a calculator to check her math homework quickly.
270	calf	noun	young cow, or back of the leg	The young calf followed its mother across the green field.
271	caller	noun	person making a phone call	The caller left a message asking her to call back.
272	calm	adjective	not worried, angry, or excited	She stayed calm even when the meeting turned chaotic.
273	calmness	noun	state of being calm	He handled the emergency with remarkable calmness and focus.
274	camel	noun	large desert animal with humps	The camel carried heavy bags across the hot desert.
275	campsite	noun	place set up for camping	We found a quiet campsite near the river last weekend.
276	canal	noun	artificial waterway for boats	Boats slowly moved along the narrow canal through town.
277	cancel	verb	stop something planned from happening	They had to cancel the trip because of heavy snow.
278	cancer	noun	serious disease with abnormal cell growth	Her grandmother recovered fully after treatment for breast cancer.
279	candle	noun	wax stick burned for light	She lit a candle on the table during dinner.
280	canned	adjective	preserved and sealed in a can	We packed canned beans and rice for the trip.
281	canteen	noun	cafeteria at work or school	Students usually eat lunch together in the school canteen.
282	capable	adjective	able to do something well	She is fully capable of leading this difficult project alone.
283	capacity	noun	maximum amount something can hold	The stadium has a seating capacity of fifty thousand people.
284	capsule	noun	small container of medicine, or space pod	The doctor prescribed one capsule twice a day.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
285	capture	noun	act of catching or seizing	News of the criminal's capture spread quickly through town.
286	career	noun	job or profession over time	She built a successful career in medicine over twenty years.
287	careless	adjective	not paying enough attention	A careless mistake cost him the entire chess match.
288	carelessly	adverb	in a careless, inattentive way	He carelessly left the front door unlocked all night.
289	carelessness	noun	lack of care or attention	The accident happened because of the driver's carelessness.
290	carpet	noun	thick fabric floor covering	They rolled out a red carpet for the guests.
291	carriage	noun	horse-drawn vehicle, or train car	The royal carriage moved slowly through the crowded streets.
292	carton	noun	cardboard box or container	She poured milk from a fresh carton into her cup.
293	cashpoint	noun	machine that dispenses cash	I withdrew some money from the cashpoint near the station.
294	casual	adjective	relaxed, not formal	He wore casual clothes to the informal weekend gathering.
295	categorize	verb	put into groups or categories	Librarians categorize books by subject and author name.
296	category	noun	group of similar things	This film fits into the category of romantic comedy.
297	cattle	noun	cows kept for farming	The farmer moved his cattle to a fresh pasture.
298	caution	noun	great care to avoid danger	Drivers should proceed with caution near the school zone.
299	cautious	adjective	careful to avoid danger	Be cautious when walking on the icy sidewalk tonight.
300	cave	noun	natural hollow space underground	Explorers discovered ancient paintings deep inside the cave.
301	CD-ROM	noun	disc storing computer data	The old software came on a single CD-ROM disc.
302	celebrity	noun	famous or well-known person	The celebrity signed autographs for fans outside the theater.
303	cell	noun	small room, or basic living unit	Scientists studied how a single cell divides and grows.
304	central	adjective	in or near the middle	The hotel has a very central location near downtown.
305	central heating	noun	system heating a whole building	Our new apartment finally has reliable central heating installed.
306	ceremony	noun	formal event marking an occasion	Hundreds of guests attended the wedding ceremony on Saturday.
307	certainty	noun	state of being sure	There is no certainty that the plan will succeed.
308	challenging	adjective	difficult in an interesting way	Learning a new language can be genuinely challenging at first.
309	champion	noun	winner of a competition	She became the national champion after winning every match.
310	channel	noun	TV station, or narrow waterway	He changed the channel to watch the evening news.
311	chaos	noun	complete disorder and confusion	The power outage caused chaos across the entire city.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
312	characteristic	noun	typical feature or quality	Patience is one of her most admirable characteristics.
313	characterize	verb	describe the typical qualities of	Critics characterize his writing style as simple and honest.
314	charge	noun	price asked, or formal accusation	There is an extra charge for delivery on weekends.
315	chariot	noun	ancient horse-drawn cart	The ancient king rode into battle on a golden chariot.
316	charity	noun	organization helping those in need	She donates part of her salary to a local charity.
317	charm	noun	quality of being attractive or pleasing	The old town square has a quiet, timeless charm.
318	chase	noun	act of running after something	The car chase ended when the driver crashed nearby.
319	chat show	noun	TV program with guest interviews	The actress talked about her new film on a chat show.
320	check-in counter	noun	desk for checking in at airports	Passengers lined up at the check-in counter before the flight.
321	check-in desk	noun	desk for checking in, e.g. hotel	We dropped our bags at the hotel check-in desk.
322	checkout	noun	place where you pay for goods	There was a long line at the supermarket checkout.
323	cheerful	adjective	happy and full of energy	The cheerful waiter greeted every customer with a big smile.
324	chemist	noun	pharmacist, or chemistry scientist	I bought some aspirin at the local chemist.
325	chemistry	noun	science of substances and reactions	She studies chemistry at the university every afternoon.
326	cherish	verb	care for something deeply and fondly	She will always cherish the memories of that summer.
327	chest of drawers	noun	piece of furniture with drawers	He keeps his socks in the top chest of drawers.
328	chewing gum	noun	sweet gum chewed but not swallowed	She blew a bubble with her chewing gum in class.
329	chief	adjective	most important, main	Traffic remains the chief cause of delays in this city.
330	choir	noun	group of singers	The church choir practiced new songs every Thursday evening.
331	choke	verb	have trouble breathing	He began to choke on a piece of dry bread.
332	Christian	adjective	relating to Christianity	Many Christian families celebrate the holiday with a big dinner.
333	chronological	adjective	arranged in time order	The exhibit displays photographs in strict chronological order.
334	chuckle	noun	soft, quiet laugh	Her joke drew a quiet chuckle from the tired audience.
335	circular	adjective	shaped like a circle	The garden was designed around a large circular fountain.
336	circus	noun	traveling show with performers, animals	Children laughed loudly at the clowns in the circus.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
337	citizenship	noun	legal status of belonging to a country	He applied for citizenship after living there for ten years.
338	civil	adjective	relating to citizens, or polite	The two neighbors kept the argument civil and calm.
339	civilization	noun	advanced, organized human society	Historians study how ancient civilization shaped modern culture.
340	classical	adjective	traditional, relating to ancient culture or old music	She prefers classical music over anything modern or loud.
341	classify	verb	arrange into groups by type	Scientists classify animals according to shared physical features.
342	cliff	noun	steep rock face by the sea	They watched the sunset from the top of a cliff.
343	climate	noun	typical weather pattern of a region	The island enjoys a warm, tropical climate all year.
344	climber	noun	person who climbs mountains or rocks	The experienced climber reached the summit before sunrise.
345	clinic	noun	place for medical treatment	She visited the local clinic for a routine checkup.
346	clip	noun	short extract, or small fastener	He shared a short clip from the concert online.
347	closely	adverb	carefully, or near in space	The teacher watched the students closely during the test.
348	coal	noun	black rock burned as fuel	The old train ran on coal instead of electricity.
349	coastal	adjective	near or relating to the coast	Many small coastal towns depend heavily on tourism.
350	cod	noun	large edible sea fish	We ordered fried cod with chips at the pub.
351	coffin	noun	box for burying a dead body	Family members carried the coffin slowly into the church.
352	collapse	noun	sudden fall or failure	The bridge collapse shocked residents of the small town.
353	collar	noun	part of a shirt around the neck	He straightened his collar before walking into the interview.
354	columnist	noun	writer of a regular newspaper column	The columnist wrote about local politics every Sunday morning.
355	combination	noun	mixture of two or more things	The dish is a tasty combination of spice and sweetness.
356	combine	verb	join or mix together	Combine the flour and sugar before adding the eggs.
357	comedian	noun	entertainer who makes people laugh	The comedian told jokes about everyday family life.
358	comedy	noun	funny entertainment or film	We watched a light comedy at the cinema last night.
359	comet	noun	icy object orbiting the sun	A bright comet appeared in the night sky last week.
360	comfort	noun	state of physical ease and relief	The soft chair gave him great comfort after a long day.
361	comma	noun	punctuation mark showing a pause	Remember to put a comma before the word 'but'.
362	command	noun	order given with authority	The soldiers obeyed the officer's command without hesitation.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
363	comment	noun	remark expressing an opinion	She left a kind comment under his vacation photo.
364	commercial	adjective	relating to buying and selling	The area near the airport is mostly commercial property.
365	commit	verb	carry out, or pledge to something	He promised never to commit the same mistake again.
366	common sense	noun	practical good judgment	Use common sense before lending money to strangers online.
367	commonly	adverb	usually, in most cases	This herb is commonly used in Italian cooking.
368	companion	noun	person who accompanies another	The dog became her loyal companion after the accident.
369	comparison	noun	act of comparing two things	The report makes a comparison between the two schools.
370	compete	verb	try to win against others	Ten athletes will compete in the final race tomorrow.
371	competitive	adjective	eager to win, or relating to competition	He has always been a highly competitive tennis player.
372	competitor	noun	person or company competing	Our biggest competitor just launched a cheaper version.
373	complement	noun	something that completes or improves	The sauce is a perfect complement to the grilled fish.
374	completely	adverb	totally, in every way	The old barn was completely destroyed in the fire.
375	complex	adjective	made of many connected parts, complicated	The instructions were far too complex for beginners to follow.
376	complicate	verb	make something more difficult	Adding more rules will only complicate an already messy process.
377	complicated	adjective	difficult to understand or deal with	Filing taxes can feel complicated for first-time workers.
378	compliment	noun	expression of praise	She blushed after receiving such a lovely compliment.
379	compose	verb	create, especially music or writing	The young musician began to compose her first symphony.
380	composition	noun	arrangement of parts, or piece of music	Students submitted a short composition about their summer holiday.
381	compound	noun	substance made of combined elements, or enclosed area	Water is a compound made from hydrogen and oxygen.
382	compromise	noun	agreement where both sides give up something	The two sides finally reached a compromise after long talks.
383	concentration	noun	focused attention on one thing	The noisy hallway broke his concentration during the exam.
384	concept	noun	abstract idea or notion	The teacher explained the concept of gravity with an apple.
385	concerned	adjective	worried about something	Parents grew concerned about the delayed school bus.
386	conclude	verb	end, or decide after considering	Researchers conclude that the new drug is generally safe.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
387	conclusion	noun	final decision or ending part	The report reached a clear conclusion after months of study.
388	conduct	noun	way a person behaves	His rude conduct at the meeting surprised his colleagues.
389	confidence	noun	belief in one's own abilities	Winning the award gave her a lot of confidence.
390	confirm	verb	state that something is true or certain	Please confirm your appointment by replying to this email.
391	confirmation	noun	statement confirming something	We received confirmation of the booking within an hour.
392	conflict	noun	serious disagreement or fight	The conflict between the neighbors lasted for several years.
393	confusing	adjective	difficult to understand, unclear	The map was so confusing that we got lost twice.
394	confusion	noun	state of being unclear or bewildered	There was some confusion about the new office schedule.
395	congratulate	verb	praise someone for an achievement	Friends gathered to congratulate her on the new job.
396	connect	verb	join or link together	This cable will connect your laptop to the printer.
397	connection	noun	link or relationship between things	There is a clear connection between diet and energy levels.
398	conquer	verb	take control by force	The empire tried to conquer neighboring lands for centuries.
399	conscious	adjective	awake and aware	The patient remained conscious throughout the entire procedure.
400	consequently	adverb	as a result, therefore	He missed the bus and consequently arrived late to work.
401	conservation	noun	protection of nature or resources	The group works on the conservation of endangered forests.
402	conservative	adjective	resistant to change, traditional	His conservative views often clash with his daughter's ideas.
403	considerable	adjective	large in amount or size	The company spent a considerable amount on new equipment.
404	consideration	noun	careful thought about something	After careful consideration, she decided to accept the offer.
405	consonant	noun	speech sound other than a vowel	The letter 'b' is a consonant, not a vowel.
406	constantly	adverb	continuously, all the time	Her phone rang constantly throughout the busy afternoon.
407	constitute	verb	form or make up something	Women constitute nearly half of the company's employees.
408	constitution	noun	basic laws governing a country	The new constitution guarantees freedom of the press.
409	construct	verb	build or make something	Workers will construct a new bridge across the river.
410	construction	noun	process of building something	Construction of the new mall will finish next spring.
411	consume	verb	eat, drink, or use up	Athletes consume extra protein to help build muscle.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
412	consumer	noun	person who buys goods or services	The new law protects the consumer from unfair prices.
413	consumption	noun	act of using up resources	Water consumption rises sharply during the summer months.
414	contain	verb	have something inside	This drink does not contain any added sugar.
415	content	noun	material or information contained within	The website's content is updated with fresh articles daily.
416	continual	adjective	happening often or repeatedly	The continual noise from the street kept him awake.
417	continually	adverb	again and again, repeatedly	Prices have continually risen over the past two years.
418	continuous	adjective	without interruption, unbroken	The factory runs on a continuous production line all night.
419	continuously	adverb	without pause or stop	The alarm rang continuously until someone turned it off.
420	contrary	adjective	opposite in nature or direction	Contrary to the forecast, the weather turned out sunny.
421	contribute	verb	give something to help achieve a result	Everyone in the team contributed ideas for the new project.
422	contribution	noun	something given to help a cause	Her financial contribution helped rebuild the flooded school.
423	controversial	adjective	causing public disagreement	The mayor's controversial plan divided the entire neighborhood.
424	convey	verb	communicate or express an idea	Her letter conveyed deep gratitude for their kindness.
425	convince	verb	persuade someone that something is true	It took a while to convince him to try the food.
426	copyright	noun	legal right to control creative work	The publisher holds the copyright to all these songs.
427	correction	noun	change that fixes a mistake	The teacher made a small correction to his essay.
428	cotton	noun	soft plant fiber used for fabric	She wore a light cotton shirt in the summer heat.
429	cough	verb	push air from lungs with a sudden noise	He began to cough loudly after inhaling the dust.
430	council	noun	group that makes decisions for a place	The local council approved plans for a new park.
431	counseling	noun	professional advice about personal problems	She sought counseling to cope with the recent loss.
432	counter	verb	respond to oppose something	She quickly countered his argument with solid evidence.
433	countless	adjective	too many to count	He has answered countless questions about his new invention.
434	county	noun	administrative region within a country	Our farm is located in the northern part of the county.
435	courage	noun	ability to face fear or danger	It took great courage to speak up during the meeting.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
436	courageous	adjective	brave, showing courage	The courageous firefighter ran back to save the child.
437	courgette	noun	long green vegetable, zucchini	She sliced a fresh courgette into the vegetable soup.
438	craft	noun	skilled activity making things by hand	Pottery is a traditional craft passed down for generations.
439	crash	noun	sudden violent collision or failure	No one was seriously hurt in the car crash.
440	creator	noun	person who makes or invents something	The creator of the app answered questions at the conference.
441	criminal	noun	person who commits a crime	Police finally arrested the criminal after a long chase.
442	crisis	noun	time of intense danger or difficulty	The company faced a financial crisis last winter.
443	critic	noun	person who judges or reviews things	The film critic gave the movie a mostly positive review.
444	critical	adjective	expressing disapproval, or extremely important	Her boss was overly critical of the finished report.
445	crop	noun	plant grown for food or use	Farmers lost most of their wheat crop to the drought.
446	crossing	noun	place where roads or paths cross	Wait for the light before using the pedestrian crossing.
447	crossroads	noun	place where roads intersect, or turning point	The town sits at the crossroads of two major highways.
448	crow	noun	large black bird	A crow landed on the fence and watched us closely.
449	cruel	adjective	causing pain deliberately	It seemed cruel to leave the puppy outside overnight.
450	crush	noun	strong but brief romantic liking	He had a huge crush on his classmate for months.
451	cucumber	noun	long green salad vegetable	She sliced cucumber and tomato for the fresh salad.
452	cultivate	verb	prepare land and grow crops	The family has cultivated rice on this land for generations.
453	cultural	adjective	relating to culture, arts, or customs	The festival celebrates the region's rich cultural heritage.
454	cure	noun	treatment that ends an illness	Scientists are still searching for a cure for the disease.
455	curiosity	noun	strong desire to know or learn	Her natural curiosity led her to study marine biology.
456	curious	adjective	eager to know or learn something	The curious child asked why the sky turns orange.
457	curiously	adverb	in a curious or strange way	Curiously, no one remembered locking the back door.
458	curly	adjective	having tight curls, not straight	Her curly hair bounced as she ran down the stairs.
459	currency	noun	system of money used in a country	The local currency lost value against the dollar this year.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
460	current	adjective	happening or existing now	Please update your current address in the online form.
461	currently	adverb	at the present time	She is currently studying abroad for one semester.
462	curriculum	noun	subjects taught in a course	The school added coding to its high school curriculum.
463	curtain	noun	cloth hung to cover a window	She pulled the curtain shut to block the morning sun.
464	curve	noun	smoothly bending line or shape	The road follows a sharp curve near the old bridge.
465	cushion	noun	soft padded pillow for sitting	She placed a soft cushion behind her back for support.
466	customs	noun	border control checking goods entering a country	We waited an hour at customs after landing abroad.
467	CV	noun	document listing work history and skills	She sent her CV to five companies this week.
468	cycle	noun	series of events that repeat	The water cycle includes evaporation, rainfall, and collection.
469	daisy	noun	small white and yellow flower	Children picked daisy flowers from the field for their mothers.
470	damage	noun	harm that reduces value or usefulness	The storm caused serious damage to the old barn roof.
471	damaged	adjective	harmed or broken	The delivery company replaced the damaged package for free.
472	damp	adjective	slightly wet or moist	The basement felt cold and damp after the heavy rain.
473	dangerously	adverb	in a dangerous manner	He was driving dangerously fast along the narrow mountain road.
474	dare	verb	have the courage to do something	No one dared to question the coach's strict decision.
475	darkness	noun	absence of light	The power failed, leaving the whole street in darkness.
476	dating	noun	activity of romantic meetings	Online dating has become common among young professionals.
477	daze	noun	state of confused shock	After the crash, she wandered around in a daze.
478	dazzle	noun	bright light that impresses or blinds	The dazzle of the fireworks lit up every face nearby.
479	deadline	noun	time by which something must be done	The deadline for submitting applications is next Friday.
480	deadly	adjective	able to cause death	The snake's bite can be deadly without quick treatment.
481	deaf	adjective	unable to hear	He has been deaf since birth and communicates through signing.
482	dealer	noun	person who trades in goods	She bought the used car from a trusted local dealer.
483	debris	noun	scattered pieces of broken material	Workers cleared the debris left by the collapsed roof.
484	debt	noun	money owed to someone	It took him five years to pay off his debt.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
485	decision	noun	choice made after consideration	Choosing a college was the hardest decision she had made.
486	declaration	noun	formal public statement	The country signed a declaration of independence that year.
487	declare	verb	state something officially or firmly	The judge declared the defendant not guilty.
488	decline	noun	gradual decrease or worsening	The town has seen a steady decline in population.
489	decrease	noun	reduction in amount or size	There was a small decrease in sales last quarter.
490	dedicate	verb	devote time or effort to something	She decided to dedicate her career to helping refugees.
491	deed	noun	action performed, often notable	Rescuing the drowning child was a truly brave deed.
492	defeat	verb	win against, beat in a contest	The home team managed to defeat their strongest rivals.
493	defend	verb	protect from harm or attack	The lawyer agreed to defend him in court.
494	defender	noun	person who protects or defends	The team's best defender stopped the final goal attempt.
495	defense	noun	action of protecting against attack	The country increased its defense spending this year.
496	deficiency	noun	lack or shortage of something needed	The tired patient was diagnosed with an iron deficiency.
497	define	verb	state the exact meaning of	Teachers should define new terms before starting the lesson.
498	definite	adjective	clearly certain or decided	We still need a definite answer by tomorrow morning.
499	definite article	noun	grammar word specifying a noun, 'the'	In English, 'the' is called the definite article.
500	definitely	adverb	without doubt, certainly	She will definitely attend the meeting tomorrow afternoon.
501	definition	noun	exact meaning of a word	Look up the definition of this word in a dictionary.
502	delete	verb	remove or erase something	Please delete that file from your computer.
503	delicate	adjective	easily broken or damaged	Be careful, this vase is very delicate.
504	delight	noun	great pleasure or joy	She smiled with delight at the surprise gift.
505	delighted	adjective	very pleased and happy	We were delighted to hear the good news.
506	delightful	adjective	very pleasant or charming	We had a delightful evening at the restaurant.
507	deliver	verb	bring something to a place	The postman will deliver the package tomorrow.
508	delivery	noun	act of bringing goods to someone	The delivery of the sofa took three weeks.
509	demand	noun	strong request, or desire for a product	There is a high demand for electric cars now.
510	democracy	noun	government elected by the people	Many countries around the world are democracies.
511	democratic	adjective	relating to or supporting democracy	They held a democratic election last month.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
512	demonstrate	verb	show clearly, or protest publicly	The teacher will demonstrate how the machine works.
513	demonstration	noun	public protest, or a practical display	Thousands joined the demonstration against the new law.
514	deny	verb	state that something is not true	He continued to deny any involvement in the crime.
515	depart	verb	leave a place, especially at the start of a journey	The train will depart from platform four.
516	department	noun	division of an organization or store	She works in the marketing department of the company.
517	departure	noun	act of leaving a place	Our flight departure was delayed by two hours.
518	dependent	adjective	relying on someone or something else	Young children are completely dependent on their parents.
519	deposit	noun	initial payment, or sum kept in a bank	We paid a deposit to reserve the hotel room.
520	depressed	adjective	very sad, or suffering from depression	He felt depressed after losing his job.
521	depressing	adjective	causing feelings of sadness	The news about the flood was really depressing.
522	depression	noun	mental illness, or period of economic decline	She was treated for depression by a therapist.
523	deprive	verb	take something away from someone	The prisoners were deprived of sunlight for weeks.
524	depth	noun	distance from top to bottom or surface to bottom	The lake reaches a depth of fifty meters.
525	derive	verb	obtain something from a source	She derives great satisfaction from her volunteer work.
526	deserve	verb	be worthy of or entitled to something	You deserve a break after all that hard work.
527	designer	noun	person who plans how things look	The designer created a new logo for the company.
528	desire	noun	strong feeling of wanting something	He had a strong desire to travel the world.
529	despair	noun	complete loss of hope	She cried in despair after failing the exam again.
530	desperate	adjective	feeling extreme need or hopelessness	The family was desperate for help after the fire.
531	despite	preposition	without being affected by, in spite of	Despite the rain, they went ahead with the picnic.
532	destination	noun	place someone is traveling to	Paris is a popular destination for tourists in summer.
533	destruction	noun	act of destroying something completely	The storm caused widespread destruction along the coast.
534	destructive	adjective	causing great damage or harm	The hurricane was one of the most destructive storms ever.
535	detective	noun	person who investigates crimes	The detective questioned everyone at the crime scene.
536	determination	noun	firmness of purpose, strong will	Her determination helped her finish the marathon.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
537	determine	verb	find out or decide something exactly	Tests will determine the cause of the illness.
538	devastate	verb	destroy completely, or severely upset	The earthquake devastated the entire village overnight.
539	devastating	adjective	highly destructive or deeply upsetting	The diagnosis was devastating news for the whole family.
540	development	noun	process of growing, improving, or creating	The development of the new drug took ten years.
541	device	noun	tool or piece of equipment for a purpose	This device measures your heart rate automatically.
542	devotion	noun	great love, loyalty, or enthusiasm	His devotion to his family was clear to everyone.
543	diagram	noun	drawing that explains how something works	The diagram shows how the engine parts fit together.
544	dial	noun	circular control or display with numbers	She turned the dial to change the radio station.
545	dialog	noun	conversation between two or more people	The dialog between the characters felt very natural.
546	diameter	noun	distance straight across a circle	The pipe has a diameter of ten centimeters.
547	diaper	noun	garment worn by babies to absorb waste	The baby needs a clean diaper right now.
548	differ	verb	be different, or disagree with someone	Our opinions differ on how to solve this problem.
549	digital	adjective	using electronic technology, not analog	We bought a new digital camera for the trip.
550	diligence	noun	careful and steady effort at a task	Her diligence at work impressed all the managers.
551	diligent	adjective	hardworking and careful	She is a diligent student who never misses homework.
552	dioxide	noun	chemical compound containing two oxygen atoms	Plants absorb carbon dioxide from the air.
553	directly	adverb	in a straight line, or without delay	Please contact me directly if you have questions.
554	dirt	noun	soil, or unclean matter	The children came inside covered in dirt.
555	disability	noun	physical or mental condition that limits activity	The building has ramps for people with a disability.
556	disable	verb	switch off a function, or injure permanently	You can disable notifications in the settings menu.
557	disabled	adjective	having a physical or mental impairment	The parking spot is reserved for disabled visitors.
558	disagreement	noun	difference of opinion between people	They had a disagreement about where to go on vacation.
559	disappoint	verb	fail to meet someone's hopes or expectations	The ending of the movie will disappoint many fans.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
560	disappointment	noun	feeling of sadness from unmet expectations	Losing the final match was a huge disappointment.
561	disaster	noun	sudden event causing great damage or suffering	The flood was declared a natural disaster.
562	disastrous	adjective	extremely unsuccessful or harmful	The company's new strategy proved to be disastrous.
563	disc jockey	noun	person who plays recorded music for an audience	The disc jockey kept everyone dancing all night.
564	discomfort	noun	slight pain or feeling of unease	She felt some discomfort after the long flight.
565	discount	noun	reduction in the usual price	We got a discount on our hotel booking.
566	discourage	verb	make someone less confident or enthusiastic	Don't let one bad grade discourage you from studying.
567	discovery	noun	act of finding something for the first time	The discovery of the ancient tomb amazed archaeologists.
568	discrimination	noun	unfair treatment based on group membership	The law protects workers from age discrimination.
569	disease	noun	illness affecting a person, animal, or plant	Doctors are researching a cure for the disease.
570	disgusting	adjective	extremely unpleasant, causing disgust	The smell from the trash was absolutely disgusting.
571	dishwasher	noun	machine that washes plates and cutlery	Just put the plates straight into the dishwasher.
572	disk	noun	flat round object, or storage device	Save the document to the hard disk.
573	dissolve	verb	mix completely into a liquid	Sugar will dissolve quickly in hot water.
574	distance	noun	amount of space between two points	We walked a long distance to reach the village.
575	distant	adjective	far away in space or time	They could see a distant mountain from the window.
576	distinction	noun	clear difference, or a mark of honor	There is a clear distinction between the two ideas.
577	distinctly	adverb	clearly, in a way easy to notice	I distinctly remember locking the front door.
578	distinguish	verb	recognize a difference between things	It is hard to distinguish the twins from each other.
579	distribute	verb	give something out to many people	Volunteers will distribute food to the flood victims.
580	distribution	noun	act of giving something out or spreading it	The company controls the distribution of its products.
581	district	noun	defined area of a town or country	They opened a new restaurant in the business district.
582	disturbance	noun	interruption of peace or normal order	Police were called to a disturbance in the street.
583	dive	noun	jump headfirst into water	He took a perfect dive off the high board.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
584	diver	noun	person who dives, especially underwater	The diver explored the coral reef for an hour.
585	diverse	adjective	showing great variety, very different	The city has a diverse population from many countries.
586	divine	adjective	relating to a god, or wonderful	The ancient people believed the king had divine power.
587	diving	noun	sport of jumping into water or exploring underwater	We went diving to see the shipwreck last summer.
588	divorced	adjective	no longer legally married	Her parents got divorced when she was young.
589	DJ	noun	person who plays recorded music for an audience	The DJ played our favorite song at the party.
590	doc	noun	informal word for a document or a doctor	Can you send me that doc by email?
591	document	noun	written, printed, or digital record	Please sign the document before you leave.
592	documentary	noun	film or program about real events and facts	We watched a documentary about ocean pollution last night.
593	dolphin	noun	intelligent marine mammal that lives in the ocean	A dolphin jumped out of the water beside the boat.
594	dot	noun	small round mark or spot	There's a small dot in the center of the page.
595	downward	adjective	moving or leading toward a lower position	The path takes a steep downward slope near the river.
596	doze	noun	short light sleep, a nap	I had a quick doze on the sofa after lunch.
597	dozen	noun	a group of twelve	She bought a dozen eggs at the market.
598	drag	verb	pull something along with effort	Please drag the heavy box across the room.
599	dramatic	adjective	sudden and striking, or theatrical	There was a dramatic increase in ticket sales this year.
600	drown	verb	die from being unable to breathe underwater	The lifeguard saved the boy before he could drown.
601	drunk	adjective	affected by too much alcohol	He was too drunk to drive home safely.
602	dude	noun	informal word for a man	Hey dude, are you coming to the party tonight?
603	dull	adjective	boring, or not bright or sharp	The movie was so dull that I fell asleep.
604	dump	noun	place where waste is left	They took the old furniture to the local dump.
605	dustbin	noun	container for household waste	Please put the wrapper in the dustbin over there.
606	dusty	adjective	covered with dust	The old books were covered in a dusty layer.
607	duty	noun	moral or legal obligation	It is your duty to protect your family.
608	duty-free	adjective	sold without the usual government tax	We bought perfume at the duty-free shop in the airport.
609	duvet	noun	thick soft quilt used as a bed cover	I wrapped myself in a warm duvet last night.
610	dynasty	noun	series of rulers from the same family	The Ming dynasty ruled China for centuries.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
611	eager	adjective	very keen or enthusiastic to do something	The students were eager to start the new project.
612	eagerness	noun	strong enthusiasm or desire	She showed great eagerness to learn the new skill.
613	earache	noun	pain felt inside the ear	My son woke up crying with an earache.
614	earnest	adjective	serious and sincere in intention	He made an earnest attempt to fix the problem.
615	eastern	adjective	located in or belonging to the east	They traveled through several eastern European countries.
616	easygoing	adjective	relaxed and not easily worried or annoyed	My roommate is very easygoing and never gets angry.
617	eco	noun	short for ecological, relating to the environment	This eco brand only uses recycled packaging materials.
618	ecological	adjective	relating to the environment and living things	The oil spill caused serious ecological damage.
619	ecology	noun	study of living things and their environment	She is studying ecology at the university.
620	economic	adjective	relating to trade, industry, and money	The country is facing a serious economic crisis.
621	economics	noun	study of production, trade, and wealth	He decided to study economics at college.
622	economy	noun	wealth and resources of a country	The government hopes to boost the economy this year.
623	ecosystem	noun	community of living things and their environment	Coral reefs support a rich and diverse ecosystem.
624	ecstasy	noun	feeling of intense happiness or joy	She screamed in ecstasy when she won the prize.
625	edge	noun	outer border or line where something ends	She sat on the edge of the bed.
626	edition	noun	version of a published book or newspaper	This is the third edition of the textbook.
627	educate	verb	teach someone, especially in school	The program aims to educate children about recycling.
628	effective	adjective	producing the result that is intended	The new medicine was very effective against the infection.
629	efficiency	noun	ability to work well without wasting time or resources	The new machine improved the factory's overall efficiency.
630	efficient	adjective	working well without wasting time or resources	Solar panels are becoming more efficient every year.
631	elbow	noun	joint between the upper and lower arm	She hurt her elbow when she fell off the bike.
632	election	noun	formal process of choosing leaders by voting	The next election will take place in November.
633	electrical	adjective	relating to or powered by electricity	There was an electrical fault in the old wiring.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
634	electricity	noun	form of energy used to power devices	The storm cut off electricity to the whole town.
635	electron	noun	tiny particle with a negative electric charge	An electron carries a negative electric charge.
636	electronic	adjective	operated by small electronic components like chips	She bought a new electronic keyboard for lessons.
637	element	noun	basic part of something, or a chemical substance	Trust is an important element of any friendship.
638	eliminate	verb	remove or get rid of something completely	The team worked to eliminate errors from the report.
639	embarrass	verb	cause someone to feel ashamed or awkward	His joke embarrassed her in front of everyone.
640	embarrassed	adjective	feeling ashamed or awkward	I felt embarrassed after tripping in front of my class.
641	embarrassment	noun	feeling of shame or awkwardness	She blushed with embarrassment when she forgot his name.
642	emerge	verb	come out into view, or become known	New facts about the case began to emerge.
643	emotion	noun	strong feeling such as joy or anger	She struggled to hide her emotion during the speech.
644	emotional	adjective	relating to emotions, or showing strong feeling	It was an emotional farewell at the train station.
645	emotionally	adverb	in a way related to emotions or feelings	The loss affected her emotionally for a long time.
646	emperor	noun	male ruler of an empire	The emperor ruled over a vast territory for decades.
647	emphasis	noun	special importance given to something	The school places great emphasis on creativity.
648	emphasize	verb	give special importance to something	The coach emphasized the importance of teamwork.
649	empire	noun	group of countries or regions ruled by one power	The Roman Empire lasted for hundreds of years.
650	employment	noun	state of having paid work	The factory provides employment for hundreds of local people.
651	enable	verb	make something possible for someone	This app will enable you to track your spending.
652	enclose	verb	surround completely, or put inside a letter	Please enclose a copy of your passport with the form.
653	encounter	noun	unexpected or chance meeting	Their first encounter happened at a friend's wedding.
654	encouragement	noun	support or advice that gives confidence	Her parents gave her encouragement to keep trying.
655	encouraging	adjective	giving hope or confidence	The doctor gave us some encouraging news today.
656	encyclopedia	noun	book or resource with information on many subjects	I looked up the topic in an old encyclopedia.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
657	endanger	verb	put someone or something at risk of harm	Pollution continues to endanger many species of fish.
658	endless	adjective	having or seeming to have no end	The desert seemed to stretch on in an endless line.
659	endure	verb	suffer something difficult without giving up	The soldiers had to endure freezing temperatures for weeks.
660	enemy	noun	person or group that opposes or hates another	The two nations had been enemies for generations.
661	engage	verb	take part in something, or attract attention	The teacher tried to engage every student in the discussion.
662	engaged	adjective	having formally agreed to marry, or occupied	My sister got engaged to her boyfriend last weekend.
663	engine	noun	machine that produces power to make something move	The mechanic checked the engine for any problems.
664	engineering	noun	design and building of machines, roads, and structures	He studied engineering at a technical university.
665	Englishman	noun	man who is from England	The Englishman ordered tea instead of coffee.
666	enjoyable	adjective	giving pleasure or enjoyment	We had a really enjoyable time at the beach.
667	enjoyment	noun	pleasure or satisfaction from doing something	Reading gives me a lot of enjoyment on rainy days.
668	enrich	verb	improve the quality or value of something	Traveling abroad can really enrich your understanding of the world.
669	ensure	verb	make certain that something happens	Please ensure that all doors are locked at night.
670	entertain	verb	amuse or interest people	The clown entertained the children with funny tricks.
671	entertainer	noun	person who performs to amuse an audience	The entertainer sang and told jokes for two hours.
672	enthusiasm	noun	strong excitement or interest in something	She approached the new project with great enthusiasm.
673	enthusiast	noun	person who is very interested in a particular activity	He is a keen music enthusiast who collects vinyl records.
674	enthusiastic	adjective	showing strong excitement or interest	The crowd gave an enthusiastic welcome to the team.
675	entire	adjective	whole, with no part left out	She spent the entire day cleaning the house.
676	entirely	adverb	completely, in every way	The final decision is entirely up to you.
677	entry	noun	act of entering, or an item in a record	You need a ticket for entry to the museum.
678	environmental	adjective	relating to the natural world and its protection	The factory faced fines for environmental damage.
679	environmentalist	noun	person who works to protect the natural environment	The environmentalist organized a protest against deforestation.
680	equal	adjective	the same in amount, value, or status	All players deserve an equal chance to win.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
681	equality	noun	state of being equal in rights or status	The movement fights for equality between all citizens.
682	equally	adverb	in an equal way or to the same degree	The prize money was shared equally among the winners.
683	equipment	noun	tools or items needed for a particular purpose	The gym has all the equipment you need to train.
684	era	noun	period of time in history marked by events	This invention marked the start of a new era.
685	essence	noun	most basic and important quality of something	Kindness is the essence of true friendship.
686	essential	adjective	absolutely necessary	Water is essential for all living things.
687	establishment	noun	organization or business, or the act of founding it	The hotel is a well known establishment in the city.
688	estimate	verb	roughly calculate the value or amount of something	The builder will estimate the total cost of repairs.
689	eternal	adjective	lasting forever, without end	The couple promised each other eternal love.
690	eternity	noun	time without end, or a very long time	Waiting for the results felt like an eternity.
691	evenly	adverb	in equal amounts, or in a balanced way	Spread the sauce evenly over the pizza base.
692	eventually	adverb	after some time, in the end	She eventually found a job she truly loved.
693	evident	adjective	clearly seen or understood, obvious	It was evident from her smile that she was happy.
694	exact	adjective	completely accurate and correct	I don't know the exact time the train leaves.
695	examination	noun	formal test, or a detailed inspection	She passed her final examination with top marks.
696	examine	verb	look at closely, or test someone's knowledge	The doctor will examine your knee this afternoon.
697	examiner	noun	person who tests or inspects something officially	The examiner asked several tough questions during the interview.
698	excellence	noun	quality of being outstanding or extremely good	The school is known for academic excellence.
699	excess	noun	amount that is more than necessary or usual	He was fined for carrying an excess of luggage.
700	exchange rate	noun	value of one currency compared to another	The exchange rate between dollars and euros changes daily.
701	excitedly	adverb	in an excited or eager way	The kids talked excitedly about their trip to the zoo.
702	excitement	noun	feeling of great enthusiasm and eagerness	There was real excitement in the room before the concert.
703	exclusive	adjective	limited to a particular group, or not shared	The hotel offers an exclusive deal for members only.
704	exhausted	adjective	extremely tired	After the marathon, she felt completely exhausted.
705	existence	noun	state of being real or living	Scientists are searching for evidence of life's existence on Mars.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
706	exit	noun	way out of a building or vehicle	The nearest exit is at the back of the theater.
707	expand	verb	become or make something larger	The company plans to expand into new markets next year.
708	expense	noun	cost of something, or money spent	Traveling every month is a big expense for us.
709	experienced	adjective	having knowledge or skill gained from practice	We need an experienced pilot for this long flight.
710	experiment	noun	scientific test to discover or prove something	The students conducted an experiment to measure water density.
711	exploration	noun	act of traveling through or examining something new	The exploration of the cave took several dangerous hours.
712	explosion	noun	sudden violent burst, often with a loud noise	A loud explosion shook the entire building.
713	expose	verb	reveal something hidden, or leave something uncovered	The report will expose corruption inside the company.
714	extend	verb	make something longer, or offer something	We decided to extend our vacation by two days.
715	extensively	adverb	to a great extent, or in a thorough way	The professor has written extensively on climate change.
716	extent	noun	size, scale, or degree of something	We were shocked by the extent of the damage.
717	extinct	adjective	no longer existing, having died out	Dinosaurs have been extinct for millions of years.
718	extinction	noun	state of dying out completely	Hunting pushed the species toward complete extinction.
719	extraordinary	adjective	very unusual or remarkable	She showed extraordinary courage during the emergency.
720	extreme	adjective	very great in degree, or severe	The desert has extreme temperatures during the day.
721	extreme sports	noun	sports that involve high risk and danger	He loves extreme sports like skydiving and bungee jumping.
722	eyesight	noun	ability to see	His eyesight has gotten worse since he turned fifty.
723	face to face	adverb	in person, directly facing another person	They finally met face to face after months of texting.
724	face-to-face	adjective	happening in person, directly with another	We prefer face-to-face meetings over video calls.
725	facility	noun	place, building, or equipment for a particular purpose	The university built a new sports facility last year.
726	fade	verb	lose color, strength, or clarity gradually	The curtains began to fade after years in the sun.
727	failure	noun	lack of success, or an unsuccessful attempt	The project ended in complete failure after months of work.
728	faint	adjective	not clear or strong, barely noticeable	She heard a faint noise coming from the basement.
729	faithful	adjective	loyal and reliable	The dog remained faithful to its owner for years.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
730	fake	adjective	not genuine, made to look real	The police found a fake passport in his bag.
731	fallen	adjective	having dropped down, or killed in battle	The fallen leaves covered the entire garden path.
732	fantasy	noun	imaginative story, or a pleasant daydream	The novel is a fantasy about a magical hidden kingdom.
733	faraway	adjective	distant, located far away	She dreamed of visiting a faraway country one day.
734	farewell	noun	act of saying goodbye	They threw a farewell party for their retiring colleague.
735	farming	noun	practice of growing crops or raising animals	His family has been farming this land for generations.
736	farmland	noun	land used for growing crops or raising animals	Miles of farmland stretched out beyond the small town.
737	farther	adverb	at or to a greater distance	We need to walk farther to reach the waterfall.
738	farthest	adverb	at or to the greatest distance	Of all the runners, she traveled the farthest that day.
739	fascinate	verb	attract and interest someone greatly	Ancient history has always fascinated my younger brother.
740	fashionable	adjective	popular or stylish at a particular time	Wide trousers became fashionable again this year.
741	fasten	verb	close or attach something firmly	Please fasten your seatbelt before the plane takes off.
742	favorable	adjective	showing approval, or advantageous	The reviews for the new restaurant were very favorable.
743	fax	noun	document sent electronically over phone lines	Could you send that contract to us by fax?
744	feast	noun	large and impressive meal, often for celebration	The whole village gathered for a wedding feast.
745	fellow	noun	a man or boy, or a companion	He is a friendly fellow who always says hello.
746	ferry	noun	boat that carries passengers regularly across water	We took the ferry across the river to the island.
747	festive	adjective	relating to celebration, or cheerful	The whole street had a festive atmosphere during Christmas.
748	fetch	verb	go and bring back something or someone	Can you fetch my glasses from the kitchen table?
749	feverishly	adverb	with great excitement, energy, or urgency	She worked feverishly to finish the report on time.
750	fifth	noun	item after fourth, or one of five equal parts	She finished the race in fifth place overall.
751	filling	noun	material that fills a hole or gap	The dentist put a filling in my back tooth.
752	film-maker	noun	person who makes films	The film-maker won an award for her first movie.
753	filter	noun	device that removes unwanted material	You need to change the water filter every month.
754	finance	verb	provide money for something	The company will finance the new project fully.
755	financial	adjective	relating to money	The family had serious financial problems last year.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
756	finding	noun	result of an investigation	The report's finding surprised all the scientists.
757	finger	noun	part of the hand	She hurt her finger while chopping vegetables.
758	fire station	noun	building where firefighters are based	The fire station is just around the corner.
759	firefighter	noun	person who puts out fires	The firefighter rescued the cat from the tree.
760	firework	noun	device that explodes with light	We watched the firework display over the river.
761	firm	adjective	strong and steady, or decided	She gave a firm answer and did not change it.
762	firmly	adverb	in a strong, steady way	He firmly believes that hard work always pays off.
763	first floor	noun	level above the ground floor	Our office is on the first floor of the building.
764	first lady	noun	wife of the president	The first lady gave a speech about education reform.
765	first-floor	adjective	located on the first floor	They rented a first-floor apartment near the park.
766	fitness	noun	state of being physically healthy	Regular exercise is good for your overall fitness.
767	flash	adjective	showy or expensive looking	He bought a flash new car after getting the job.
768	flavor	noun	taste of food or drink	This ice cream has a strong chocolate flavor.
769	flock	noun	group of birds or sheep	A flock of birds flew over the field.
770	flow	noun	steady movement of something	The flow of the river was much stronger after the rain.
771	flu	noun	common illness like a bad cold	She stayed home from work because she had the flu.
772	fluent	adjective	able to speak a language smoothly	After two years abroad, she became fluent in French.
773	fluently	adverb	in a smooth, skillful way	He speaks German fluently after living in Berlin.
774	flunk	verb	fail a test or class	He was worried he might flunk the math exam.
775	flute	noun	thin musical wind instrument	She has played the flute since she was seven.
776	fold	noun	crease made by bending something	There was a neat fold in the middle of the paper.
777	folk	noun	people in general	Many folk in this village grow their own vegetables.
778	fond	adjective	having a liking for someone or something	She is very fond of her younger brother.
779	fondness	noun	gentle liking or affection	He has a fondness for old jazz records.
780	foolish	adjective	lacking good sense	It was foolish of him to leave the door unlocked.
781	foot	noun	lower part of the leg	He stubbed his foot on the edge of the table.
782	forbidden	adjective	not allowed by rule or law	Smoking is forbidden inside the hospital building.
783	forecast	noun	prediction of future weather or events	The weather forecast predicts heavy rain tomorrow.
784	forehead	noun	part of the face above the eyes	Sweat dripped down his forehead after the run.
785	forgive	verb	stop being angry about a wrong	I hope you can forgive me for being so late.
786	formal	adjective	suitable for official or serious occasions	You should wear formal clothes to the wedding.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
787	formally	adverb	in an official or proper way	The mayor formally opened the new library yesterday.
788	format	noun	way something is arranged or presented	Please save the document in a different format.
789	former	adjective	existing or happening before now	The former president gave a speech at the university.
790	formula	noun	set method or mathematical rule	The teacher wrote the formula for water on the board.
791	forth	adverb	forward or onward in time or space	The soldiers marched forth toward the border at dawn.
792	fortnight	noun	period of two weeks	We are going on holiday for a fortnight in June.
793	fortunate	adjective	lucky, having good fortune	We were fortunate to find a table at the busy cafe.
794	foundation	noun	base that supports a structure	Workers laid the foundation for the new house.
795	fountain	noun	structure that sends up water for decoration	Children love throwing coins into the fountain.
796	fragment	noun	small broken piece of something	A fragment of the ancient vase was found in the soil.
797	freely	adverb	without restriction or limit	Citizens can freely express their opinions in public.
798	freezer	noun	appliance that keeps food frozen	Put the meat in the freezer to keep it fresh.
799	freezing	adjective	extremely cold	It was freezing outside, so we wore thick coats.
800	frequency	noun	how often something happens	The frequency of the buses increases during rush hour.
801	frequent	adjective	happening often	There have been frequent power cuts this month.
802	frequently	adverb	often, many times	She frequently travels abroad for her job.
803	freshman	noun	first-year student	As a freshman, she felt nervous on her first day.
804	friendliness	noun	quality of being kind and warm	We were impressed by the friendliness of the staff.
805	fright	noun	sudden feeling of fear	The loud noise gave everyone a terrible fright.
806	frost	noun	thin layer of ice on surfaces	There was frost on the grass this morning.
807	frozen	adjective	turned solid by extreme cold	We bought some frozen vegetables from the supermarket.
808	frustrated	adjective	annoyed because of being unable to succeed	He felt frustrated when the printer stopped working again.
809	frustration	noun	feeling of being upset or annoyed	She sighed with frustration when the train was delayed again.
810	frying pan	noun	flat pan used for cooking food	She heated some oil in the frying pan.
811	fuel	noun	material burned for energy	The car ran out of fuel on the motorway.
812	full stop	noun	punctuation mark that ends a sentence	Remember to put a full stop at the end of the sentence.
813	full-time	adjective	working the whole standard week	She just started a full-time job at the hospital.
814	fund	noun	amount of money saved for a purpose	The charity set up a fund to help flood victims.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
815	funeral	noun	ceremony for burying the dead	The whole family attended the funeral last week.
816	fur	noun	soft hair covering an animal	The cat's fur felt soft and warm.
817	furnish	verb	put furniture into a room	They plan to furnish the new apartment next month.
818	furthermore	adverb	in addition, also	Furthermore, the report failed to mention the delays.
819	furthest	adverb	to the greatest distance	Of all the runners, she travelled the furthest today.
820	fuss	noun	unnecessary excitement or complaint	There is no need to make such a fuss about it.
821	gain	noun	increase or improvement in something	The company reported a small gain in profits this year.
822	gall	noun	rude and disrespectful boldness	He had the gall to ask for more money.
823	gallon	noun	unit of liquid measurement	The car uses about one gallon of fuel every hour.
824	gap	noun	empty space between two things	There is a small gap between the two buildings.
825	gardening	noun	activity of growing plants	She spends every weekend gardening in the backyard.
826	garment	noun	piece of clothing	Each garment in the shop is carefully hand sewn.
827	gay	adjective	cheerful and lively, or homosexual	Her gay laughter filled the whole room with joy.
828	gee	interjection	expression of surprise	Gee, I did not expect to see you here today.
829	gene	noun	unit of heredity in living things	Scientists identified the gene linked to the disease.
830	general	adjective	affecting most people or things	The general opinion is that the plan will work well.
831	generally	adverb	in most cases, usually	Generally, the weather here is mild in autumn.
832	generate	verb	produce or create something	The new factory will generate hundreds of local jobs.
833	generous	adjective	willing to give freely	It was very generous of you to donate so much.
834	genetic	adjective	relating to genes or heredity	The disease appears to have a genetic cause.
835	genetically	adverb	in a way relating to genes	The two brothers are genetically almost identical.
836	genetics	noun	science of heredity and genes	She is studying genetics at university this year.
837	gentleman	noun	polite or respectable man	The gentleman held the door open for everyone.
838	geographical	adjective	relating to the study of the earth	The two countries share a long geographical border.
839	geography	noun	study of the earth's surface	We are learning about the geography of South America.
840	geology	noun	study of rocks and the earth	He took a course in geology at college last year.
841	gesture	noun	movement of the hand or body	He made a rude gesture at the other driver.
842	giant	adjective	extremely large in size	A giant billboard now stands above the old shop.
843	gifted	adjective	having natural talent or ability	She is a gifted musician who started piano at four.
844	giggle	noun	light, silly laugh	The joke gave the whole class a fit of giggle.
845	ginger	noun	spicy root used in cooking	Add a piece of fresh ginger to the soup.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
846	giraffe	noun	tall African animal with a long neck	The giraffe stretched its neck to reach the leaves.
847	glance	noun	brief or hurried look	She took a quick glance at her watch during the meeting.
848	glide	noun	smooth, effortless movement through air	The eagle's smooth glide across the sky amazed us.
849	glimpse	noun	brief or partial view	We only caught a glimpse of the singer as she left.
850	glint	noun	small flash of light	There was a glint of mischief in his eyes.
851	global	adjective	relating to the whole world	Climate change is a serious global problem today.
852	glorious	adjective	wonderful, magnificent	We spent a glorious afternoon walking on the beach.
853	glory	noun	great honor or fame	The team celebrated their moment of glory on the field.
854	goalkeeper	noun	player who defends the goal	The goalkeeper made an amazing save in the final minute.
855	goddess	noun	female god	The ancient Greeks worshipped a goddess of love.
856	golfer	noun	person who plays golf	The professional golfer practiced for hours every day.
857	goodness	interjection	expression of surprise	Goodness, I did not realize it was so late already.
858	goods	noun	items bought and sold	The truck delivered goods to the store every morning.
859	gorgeous	adjective	extremely beautiful or pleasant	She wore a gorgeous dress to the party last night.
860	gorilla	noun	large African ape	The gorilla at the zoo watched the visitors closely.
861	gossip	noun	casual talk about other people	She never listens to gossip about her coworkers.
862	govern	verb	rule or control a country	The new president will govern the country for four years.
863	governor	noun	leader of a state or region	The governor announced new funding for local schools.
864	gown	noun	long formal dress	She wore a long silk gown to the ceremony.
865	grab	verb	seize something suddenly	He tried to grab the ball before it hit the ground.
866	graceful	adjective	moving in a smooth, elegant way	The dancer moved across the stage in a graceful way.
867	graduation	noun	completion of a course of study	Her parents flew in for her graduation ceremony.
868	grant	noun	sum of money given for a purpose	The university offered her a grant to study abroad.
869	graph	noun	diagram showing relationships between numbers	The graph shows how sales increased over five years.
870	graphic	adjective	vivid and detailed, or visual	The movie contained some very graphic violence.
871	graphics	noun	visual images on a screen or page	The new video game has stunning graphics and sound.
872	gratitude	noun	feeling of being thankful	She wrote a letter to express her gratitude for the gift.
873	grave	noun	place where a dead body is buried	They placed fresh flowers on her grandmother's grave.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
874	gravy	noun	sauce made from meat juices	Pour the gravy over the mashed potatoes before serving.
875	greenhouse	noun	glass building for growing plants	She grows tomatoes in a small greenhouse behind the house.
876	greeting	noun	words or gesture of welcome	He gave a friendly greeting to everyone at the door.
877	grill	noun	frame used for cooking food over heat	We cooked burgers on the grill in the backyard.
878	groom	noun	man about to be or just married	The groom looked nervous as he waited at the altar.
879	ground floor	noun	floor of a building at street level	The reception desk is located on the ground floor.
880	grouping	noun	collection of things put together	The teacher arranged the students into a small grouping.
881	growth	noun	process of increasing in size	The country has seen steady economic growth this decade.
882	guarantee	noun	formal promise something will happen	The washing machine comes with a two year guarantee.
883	guidance	noun	help or advice given	The students received guidance from their career counselor.
884	guide	noun	person or book that gives directions	Our guide showed us around the old city all afternoon.
885	guilt	noun	feeling of having done wrong	He felt a deep sense of guilt after lying to her.
886	guilty	adjective	responsible for wrongdoing	The jury found the man guilty of the crime.
887	guitarist	noun	person who plays the guitar	The guitarist played a solo during the last song.
888	gym	noun	place with equipment for exercise	She goes to the gym three times a week.
889	gymnastics	noun	sport involving physical exercises and balance	She has practiced gymnastics since she was five years old.
890	habitat	noun	natural home of a plant or animal	The forest is the natural habitat of many rare animals.
891	hairstylist	noun	person who cuts and styles hair	She booked an appointment at the hairstylist for Saturday.
892	hairdryer	noun	device that dries hair with air	She used the hairdryer to dry her hair quickly.
893	hammer	noun	tool for hitting nails	He used a hammer to fix the loose shelf.
894	hand-held	adjective	small enough to be held in the hand	She used a hand-held device to scan the barcode.
895	handball	noun	team sport played with the hands	The kids played handball in the school playground.
896	handkerchief	noun	small cloth for wiping the nose or face	He wiped his forehead with a clean handkerchief.
897	handshake	noun	act of shaking hands as a greeting	They greeted each other with a firm handshake.
898	handwriting	noun	way a person writes by hand	Her handwriting is so neat that it looks like print.
899	handy	adjective	useful or convenient	This little tool is very handy for small repairs.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
900	hang	verb	attach something from above	Please hang your coat on the hook by the door.
901	hanging	adjective	suspended from above	A hanging lamp lit the small kitchen table softly.
902	harbor	noun	sheltered place for ships	The fishing boats returned to the harbor before sunset.
903	hard-working	adjective	putting a lot of effort into work	She is a hard-working student who never misses class.
904	hardship	noun	severe difficulty or suffering	The family faced great hardship during the war.
905	harness	noun	straps used to secure or control	The climber checked his harness before going up the wall.
906	hasty	adjective	done too quickly, rushed	He regretted making such a hasty decision under pressure.
907	hatch	noun	small opening in a floor or ceiling	The sailors climbed through the hatch onto the deck.
908	hatred	noun	intense dislike or hostility	The speech was full of hatred toward other groups.
909	haunt	noun	place someone visits often	The old cafe was a favorite haunt of local writers.
910	haven	noun	safe or peaceful place	The small island became a haven for wildlife.
911	hazard	noun	danger or risk	Wet floors can be a serious hazard in the kitchen.
912	headline	noun	title of a newspaper article	The story made the front page headline this morning.
913	heal	verb	become healthy again	The wound will heal completely within a few weeks.
914	healing	adjective	helping to cure or restore health	The doctor recommended a healing cream for the burn.
915	hearing	noun	ability to hear sounds	Her hearing has gotten worse since the loud concert.
916	heart attack	noun	sudden failure of the heart	He suffered a heart attack while jogging in the park.
917	hearted	adjective	having a certain kind of feeling	She is a kind hearted person who helps everyone.
918	hearty	adjective	large and satisfying, or warm and sincere	We enjoyed a hearty breakfast before starting the hike.
919	heater	noun	device that produces heat	Turn on the heater, it is freezing in this room.
920	heaven	noun	place believed to be home of God	Many religions describe heaven as a place of peace.
921	heavenly	adjective	wonderful, delightful	The cake tasted absolutely heavenly after the long meal.
922	heel	noun	back part of the foot	She twisted her heel while running down the stairs.
923	height	noun	measurement from bottom to top	The building's height makes it visible from far away.
924	helmet	noun	protective covering for the head	Always wear a helmet when you ride your bike.
925	helpless	adjective	unable to help oneself	She felt helpless when the car broke down at night.
926	herd	noun	group of large animals together	A herd of cows crossed the road slowly.
927	hesitate	verb	pause before doing or saying something	Do not hesitate to call me if you need help.
928	hidden	adjective	kept out of sight	The treasure was hidden deep inside the old cave.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
929	highlight	verb	draw attention to something important	The report will highlight the main risks of the plan.
930	highly	adverb	to a great degree	The film was highly praised by critics everywhere.
931	hip	noun	part of the body between waist and thigh	She rested her hand on her hip while she talked.
932	hire	verb	employ someone, or pay to use something	The company plans to hire ten new employees this year.
933	historian	noun	person who studies history	The historian wrote a book about ancient Rome.
934	historic	adjective	important in history	The two leaders signed a historic peace agreement.
935	historical	adjective	relating to the past or history	The museum is full of historical artifacts from Egypt.
936	HIV	noun	virus that can lead to AIDS	The clinic offers free testing for HIV every week.
937	holy	adjective	sacred, connected with God	Pilgrims travel every year to visit the holy site.
938	homeless	adjective	having no home	The charity provides shelter for homeless people in winter.
939	honest	adjective	truthful and sincere	Please be honest with me about what happened.
940	honestly	adverb	in a truthful way	Honestly, I have no idea where the keys are.
941	honesty	noun	quality of being truthful	The teacher values honesty above almost everything else.
942	honeymoon	noun	holiday taken after a wedding	They spent their honeymoon on a small island.
943	hop	noun	short jump	The rabbit gave one quick hop across the lawn.
944	hopeful	adjective	feeling that something good will happen	She remained hopeful that the surgery would go well.
945	hopefully	adverb	it is hoped that	Hopefully, the weather will improve for the weekend.
946	hopeless	adjective	without any hope	The situation seemed hopeless after the second failed attempt.
947	horizon	noun	line where the sky meets the land	The sun slowly disappeared below the horizon.
948	horn	noun	device that makes a warning sound	The driver honked his horn at the slow traffic.
949	horrible	adjective	extremely unpleasant or bad	The food at that restaurant was absolutely horrible.
950	horrify	verb	shock or fill with horror	The scene in the film will horrify sensitive viewers.
951	hostel	noun	budget place for travelers to stay	We stayed at a cheap hostel near the train station.
952	household	noun	people living together in one home	Every household in the street received the same letter.
953	housework	noun	cleaning and tasks done at home	They share the housework equally between them.
954	huge	adjective	extremely large	They live in a huge house with ten bedrooms.
955	humanity	noun	all human beings collectively	The disaster showed the best side of humanity.
956	humid	adjective	having a lot of moisture in the air	The air felt humid and heavy before the storm.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
957	humor	noun	quality of being funny	He handled the awkward situation with great humor.
958	humorous	adjective	funny, causing laughter	She gave a humorous speech at her sister's wedding.
959	hunger	noun	feeling of needing food	The charity works to end hunger in poor regions.
960	hunt	noun	act of searching for or chasing	The hunt for the missing dog lasted all day.
961	hurriedly	adverb	in a fast, rushed way	She hurriedly packed her bags before the taxi arrived.
962	hut	noun	small simple shelter or house	They spent the night in a small wooden hut.
963	ice hockey	noun	team sport played on ice with sticks	Canadians are famous for loving ice hockey so much.
964	ice skating	noun	sport of gliding on ice with skates	We went ice skating at the rink downtown last night.
965	identity	noun	who or what someone is	The police could not confirm the man's identity.
966	identity card	noun	official card proving who you are	You must show your identity card to enter the building.
967	idiom	noun	phrase with a non-literal meaning	This idiom is hard for beginners to understand.
968	idol	noun	person greatly admired	The young singer became an idol to millions of fans.
969	ignore	verb	pay no attention to something	Please do not ignore the warning signs on the machine.
970	illegally	adverb	in a way that breaks the law	The company was fined for dumping waste illegally.
971	illness	noun	state of being unwell	She missed a week of school because of illness.
972	illuminate	verb	light up a place or object	Bright lamps illuminate the whole hallway at night.
973	imaginary	adjective	existing only in the mind	The child talked to an imaginary friend at dinner.
974	imitate	verb	copy the actions of someone	Young children often imitate their parents' behavior.
975	immediate	adjective	happening right away	The manager demanded an immediate response to the email.
976	immediately	adverb	right away, at once	Call the doctor immediately if the pain gets worse.
977	immigrate	verb	move permanently to another country	Her grandparents chose to immigrate to Canada in 1960.
978	immigration	noun	act of moving to live in another country	The government introduced new rules on immigration last year.
979	impair	verb	weaken or damage something	The injury may permanently impair his ability to walk.
980	impression	noun	opinion or feeling formed about something	He made a good impression at the job interview.
981	impressive	adjective	causing admiration	The building's architecture is truly impressive to visitors.
982	improper	adjective	not suitable or correct	It would be improper to discuss salaries in public.
983	improvement	noun	act of making something better	There has been a clear improvement in her grades.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
984	incident	noun	event, often unpleasant or unusual	Police are investigating the strange incident from last night.
985	including	preposition	as one part of the whole	Everyone came to the party, including her old roommate.
986	income	noun	money earned from work or investment	Her monthly income covers rent and other basic bills.
987	inconvenient	adjective	causing difficulty or trouble	The meeting time is inconvenient for most of the team.
988	incorrect	adjective	not accurate or right	Two of the answers on the test were incorrect.
989	increasingly	adverb	more and more over time	Online shopping has become increasingly popular in recent years.
990	incredible	adjective	impossible or hard to believe	The view from the mountain top was simply incredible.
991	incredibly	adverb	to an extreme or surprising degree	The exam was incredibly difficult for most of the students.
992	indefinite article	noun	grammatical word for any one thing	In English, 'a' and 'an' are types of indefinite article.
993	independent	adjective	free from control by others	She became fully independent after moving out at eighteen.
994	indirect	adjective	not going straight to the point	The flight took an indirect route because of the storm.
995	indirectly	adverb	in a way that is not direct	The new policy will indirectly affect small businesses too.
996	individual	adjective	relating to a single person or thing	Each student receives individual attention from the tutor.
997	indoors	adverb	inside a building	We stayed indoors all afternoon because of the rain.
998	industrial	adjective	relating to manufacturing industries	The town grew rapidly after the industrial revolution began.
999	industry	noun	economic activity of producing goods	The tourism industry brings a lot of money to the region.
1000	inevitable	adjective	certain to happen, unavoidable	Some change was inevitable once the factory closed.
1001	infection	noun	illness caused by bacteria or viruses	She got an infection after cutting her hand.
1002	infinitive	noun	base form of a verb	To go is the infinitive form of the verb.
1003	inform	verb	to tell someone about something	Please inform me if the meeting time changes.
1004	informative	adjective	giving useful information	The documentary was very informative about ocean life.
1005	ingredient	noun	item used to make a dish	Flour is the main ingredient in bread.
1006	inhabitant	noun	person who lives in a place	The city has over a million inhabitants.
1007	inhale	verb	to breathe air into the lungs	He inhaled deeply before diving into the pool.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1008	initial	noun	first letter of a name	She signed the form with her initials only.
1009	initially	adverb	at the beginning, at first	Initially, the plan seemed too expensive to try.
1010	inject	verb	to put a liquid into something with a needle	The nurse injected the medicine into his arm.
1011	injury	noun	damage to a part of the body	He suffered a serious injury during the football match.
1012	ink	noun	colored liquid used for writing	The pen ran out of ink halfway through the exam.
1013	innermost	adjective	closest to the center or inside	She finally shared her innermost thoughts with her friend.
1014	innocent	adjective	not guilty of a crime	The jury decided that the man was innocent.
1015	innovator	noun	person who introduces new ideas or methods	She is known as an innovator in renewable energy technology.
1016	inquiry	noun	request for information, official investigation	The company received several inquiries about the new product.
1017	insane	adjective	mentally ill, very foolish	It would be insane to drive in this snowstorm.
1018	inscribe	verb	to write or carve words on something	His name was inscribed on the trophy.
1019	inscription	noun	words written or carved on something	The old inscription on the stone was hard to read.
1020	insight	noun	clear understanding of something complex	The book gave me new insight into ancient history.
1021	insist	verb	to demand something firmly	She insisted on paying for the dinner herself.
1022	inspection	noun	careful examination of something	The factory passed its annual safety inspection.
1023	inspire	verb	to give someone motivation or ideas	Her courage inspired many people around the world.
1024	install	verb	to set up equipment or software for use	You need to install the app before you can log in.
1025	instance	noun	a particular example or case	In this instance, the manager made the right decision.
1026	instead of	preposition	in place of, as an alternative to	Let's walk instead of taking the car today.
1027	institute	noun	organization for education or research	She works at a research institute in Berlin.
1028	instruction	noun	information about how to do something	Follow the instructions carefully to assemble the shelf.
1029	instructor	noun	person who teaches a skill	The ski instructor helped beginners learn to turn.
1030	insurance	noun	protection against loss, paid by fees	You should buy travel insurance before your trip.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
103 1	intend	verb	to plan or mean to do something	We intend to visit Japan next spring.
103 2	intense	adjective	very strong or extreme	The heat was intense during the summer afternoon.
103 3	intensive	adjective	thorough and concentrated in a short time	She took an intensive course to learn Spanish quickly.
103 4	intention	noun	plan or purpose in mind	It was never my intention to hurt anyone.
103 5	intentionally	adverb	on purpose, deliberately	He intentionally left the door open for the cat.
103 6	interact	verb	to communicate or react with each other	Children learn a lot when they interact with animals.
103 7	interaction	noun	communication between people or things	Social interaction is important for a child's development.
103 8	intermediate	adjective	between beginner and advanced level	She joined the intermediate class after finishing the basics.
103 9	intermission	noun	short break during a show or event	We bought snacks during the intermission of the play.
104 0	internal	adjective	existing or happening inside something	The company has strict internal rules about spending.
104 1	internationally	adverb	involving many countries	The singer became famous internationally after that album.
104 2	interrupt	verb	to stop someone speaking or something happening	Please don't interrupt me while I'm on the phone.
104 3	interval	noun	period of time between two events	There is a short interval between the two lessons.
104 4	interviewee	noun	person who is being interviewed	The interviewee answered every question calmly and clearly.
104 5	introduction	noun	act of introducing, opening part of a text	The book's introduction explains the author's main goal.
104 6	invasion	noun	act of entering by force to attack	The invasion of the country shocked the whole world.
104 7	invest	verb	to put money into something to make a profit	They decided to invest their savings in new stocks.
104 8	investigation	noun	official examination of facts about an event	Police opened an investigation into the missing money.
104 9	invitation	noun	written or spoken request to attend something	She sent invitations to all her wedding guests.
105 0	involuntarily	adverb	without choosing to, not on purpose	He involuntarily flinched when the balloon popped loudly.
105 1	involve	verb	to include something as a necessary part	The job will involve a lot of travel abroad.
105 2	involved	adjective	taking part in something, complicated	She got deeply involved in the charity project.
105 3	iron	noun	strong metal, appliance for pressing clothes	She used the iron to smooth out the wrinkled shirt.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
105 4	ironing	noun	act of pressing clothes with an iron	He hates doing the ironing on weekends.
105 5	irregular	adjective	not following the usual pattern or rule	Go is an irregular verb in English.
105 6	irritate	verb	to annoy someone, to cause discomfort to skin	The loud noise began to irritate the neighbors.
105 7	isle	noun	island, especially a small one	They sailed to a quiet isle off the coast.
105 8	isolation	noun	state of being alone or separated	Many people felt isolation during the long winter months.
105 9	ivory	noun	hard white material from elephant tusks	The old piano keys were made of real ivory.
106 0	jade	noun	hard green gemstone	She wore a beautiful necklace made of jade.
106 1	jail	noun	place where criminals are kept	The thief spent two years in jail.
106 2	jar	noun	glass container with a lid	She kept homemade jam in a glass jar.
106 3	jazz	noun	style of music with strong rhythm	He plays the saxophone in a jazz band.
106 4	jealous	adjective	feeling envy of someone	She felt jealous when her friend got the promotion.
106 5	jewel	noun	precious stone or gem	The crown was decorated with rare jewels.
106 6	jog	verb	to run slowly for exercise	She jogs around the park every morning.
106 7	jogging	noun	running slowly for exercise	Jogging is a great way to stay fit.
106 8	joint	adjective	shared or combined by two or more people	The two schools organized a joint music concert.
106 9	journal	noun	personal diary, academic magazine	She writes in her journal every night before bed.
107 0	journalist	noun	person who writes news stories	The journalist interviewed the mayor about the new law.
107 1	judgment	noun	opinion or decision made after thinking	The judge's final judgment surprised everyone in court.
107 2	jug	noun	container with a handle for liquids	Please fill the jug with cold water.
107 3	juicy	adjective	full of juice	The peach was ripe and incredibly juicy.
107 4	jumper	noun	knitted sweater	She wore a warm woollen jumper in winter.
107 5	jungle	noun	thick tropical forest	The explorers got lost deep in the jungle.
107 6	justice	noun	fair treatment, the legal system	The victims finally received justice after years of waiting.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1077	kettle	noun	container for boiling water	Could you put the kettle on for tea?
1078	keyboard	noun	set of keys for typing or playing music	She typed the report quickly on her keyboard.
1079	killing	noun	act of causing someone's death	Police are investigating the killing of a local shopkeeper.
1080	kindness	noun	quality of being friendly and generous	She thanked the stranger for his kindness and help.
1081	kitten	noun	young cat	The kitten chased a ball of wool across the floor.
1082	knit	verb	to make clothing from wool using needles	My grandmother taught me how to knit a scarf.
1083	lab	noun	room for scientific work, short for laboratory	The students tested the sample in the lab.
1084	laboratory	noun	room equipped for scientific experiments	The scientist spends most of her day in the laboratory.
1085	ladder	noun	set of steps for climbing	He climbed the ladder to fix the roof.
1086	lamb	noun	young sheep, meat from a young sheep	The farmer looked after a newborn lamb in the field.
1087	landlord	noun	person who rents property to tenants	The landlord fixed the broken heater in the apartment.
1088	largely	adverb	mostly, to a great extent	The success was largely due to careful planning.
1089	lasting	adjective	continuing for a long time	Their trip left a lasting impression on the children.
1090	latecomer	noun	person who arrives late	The latecomers had to wait outside until the break.
1091	lately	adverb	recently, in the near past	Have you seen any good movies lately?
1092	laughter	noun	sound or act of laughing	The room filled with laughter after his joke.
1093	launch	verb	to start something, to send into use	The company will launch its new phone next month.
1094	lawful	adjective	allowed or recognized by law	It is not lawful to drive without a license.
1095	lay	verb	to put something down carefully	She laid the baby gently in the crib.
1096	layer	noun	one thickness of material covering a surface	The cake had three layers of chocolate sponge.
1097	leadership	noun	ability to lead a group	Her leadership helped the team win the championship.
1098	leading	adjective	most important or successful	She is a leading expert in climate science.
1099	league	noun	group of sports teams competing together	Our team finished second in the local league.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
110 0	lean	adjective	thin, without much fat	The recipe calls for lean meat instead of fatty cuts.
110 1	leap	verb	to jump a long way or high	The cat leapt onto the table in one motion.
110 2	lecture	noun	educational talk to an audience	The professor gave a lecture on ancient Rome.
110 3	legal	adjective	allowed by or relating to law	It is legal to drive at eighteen in most countries.
110 4	legally	adverb	in a way allowed by law	The company is legally required to pay taxes.
110 5	length	noun	measurement of how long something is	The length of the pool is twenty five meters.
110 6	lessen	verb	to make or become smaller	The medicine helped lessen the pain in her back.
110 7	lettuce	noun	leafy green vegetable used in salad	She added fresh lettuce to the sandwich.
110 8	liar	noun	person who tells lies	Nobody trusted him because he was a known liar.
110 9	liberate	verb	to set someone or something free	Troops worked together to liberate the captured city.
111 0	liberation	noun	act of setting free	The town celebrated its liberation from years of occupation.
111 1	librarian	noun	person who works in a library	The librarian helped me find a book on astronomy.
111 2	lifeguard	noun	person who watches swimmers for safety	The lifeguard rescued a swimmer caught in the current.
111 3	lifelong	adjective	lasting a whole life	They have been lifelong friends since childhood.
111 4	lift	noun	elevator, a free ride in someone's car	We took the lift to the tenth floor.
111 5	lighter	noun	small device used to light cigarettes	He used a lighter to light the candles.
111 6	lightly	adverb	gently, to a small degree	She touched his shoulder lightly to get his attention.
111 7	lightning	noun	bright flash of light in a storm	Lightning lit up the sky during the storm.
111 8	likeness	noun	resemblance to another person or thing	The portrait captured a striking likeness of the queen.
111 9	limit	noun	point beyond which something cannot go	There is a speed limit of fifty on this road.
112 0	limitation	noun	rule or fact that limits something	Every plan has some limitations we must accept.
112 1	limited	adjective	restricted in amount, size, or scope	Tickets are limited, so book early for the concert.
112 2	limp	verb	to walk unevenly because of an injured leg	He limped off the field after twisting his ankle.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
112 3	link	noun	connection between two things	Click the link to open the website.
112 4	liquid	adjective	flowing freely like water, not solid or gas	The soap turned into a liquid form when heated.
112 5	literary	adjective	relating to literature or writing	She studies literary works from the nineteenth century.
112 6	literature	noun	written works, especially novels and poems	He is studying English literature at university.
112 7	liver	noun	organ that cleans the blood	Alcohol can damage the liver over time.
112 8	loaf	noun	bread shaped and baked as one whole piece	She bought a fresh loaf of bread this morning.
112 9	locate	verb	to find the exact position of something	We used a map to locate the nearest hospital.
113 0	location	noun	particular place or position	The hotel has a great location near the beach.
113 1	lodge	noun	small house, often in the countryside	We stayed in a mountain lodge during our ski trip.
113 2	log	noun	piece of a cut tree trunk, a written record	He threw another log onto the fire.
113 3	logic	noun	reasoning based on facts and rules	There was no logic behind his sudden decision.
113 4	logo	noun	symbol or design representing a company	The company changed its logo last year.
113 5	lorry	noun	large vehicle for carrying goods	A lorry delivered furniture to the new office.
113 6	loss	noun	act of losing something or someone	The company reported a big loss last quarter.
113 7	lottery	noun	game where prizes are won by chance	He won a small prize in the national lottery.
113 8	loud	adjective	producing a lot of noise	The music was too loud for the small room.
113 9	loudspeaker	noun	device that makes sound louder	An announcement came through the airport loudspeaker.
114 0	lovingly	adverb	in a way that shows love or care	She lovingly wrapped each gift for her family.
114 1	loyal	adjective	faithful and supportive	The dog remained loyal to its owner for years.
114 2	loyalty	noun	quality of being faithful and supportive	Customers value loyalty from the brands they buy.
114 3	luggage	noun	bags and suitcases used for traveling	Please keep your luggage close to you at the station.
114 4	lung	noun	organ used for breathing	Smoking can seriously damage your lungs.
114 5	luxury	noun	great comfort provided by expensive things	They enjoyed the luxury of a five star hotel.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
114 6	magical	adjective	relating to magic, wonderfully exciting	The fireworks created a magical atmosphere at the party.
114 7	magician	noun	person who performs magic tricks	The magician pulled a rabbit out of his hat.
114 8	magnificent	adjective	extremely beautiful or impressive	The view from the mountain top was absolutely magnificent.
114 9	mailbox	noun	box for receiving letters	She checked the mailbox for any new letters.
115 0	main	adjective	most important, largest, or central	The main entrance is at the front of the building.
115 1	maintain	verb	to keep something in good condition, to continue	It takes effort to maintain a healthy lifestyle.
115 2	maintenance	noun	work done to keep something in good condition	The building needs regular maintenance to stay safe.
115 3	majority	noun	the larger part of a group	The majority of students passed the final exam.
115 4	management	noun	act of controlling a business, the people who control it	The hotel's management improved customer service greatly.
115 5	mankind	noun	all human beings	The invention changed the course of mankind forever.
115 6	maple	noun	tree with broad leaves, known for its syrup	The maple leaves turned bright red in autumn.
115 7	marble	noun	hard stone used for building, a small glass ball toy	The floor of the palace was made of white marble.
115 8	marine	adjective	relating to the sea	Scientists study marine life near the coral reef.
115 9	marked	adjective	clearly noticeable	There was a marked improvement in her test scores.
116 0	marriage	noun	legal union between two people	Their marriage lasted for over forty years.
116 1	mash	verb	to crush food into a soft mass	Mash the potatoes with butter and milk.
116 2	mass	adjective	involving a large number of people or things	The factory produces goods for mass consumption.
116 3	massive	adjective	very large in size or amount	A massive crowd gathered for the free concert.
116 4	mathematician	noun	expert in mathematics	The mathematician solved a problem no one else could.
116 5	mathematics	noun	the study of numbers and shapes	She teaches mathematics at the local high school.
116 6	maximum	adjective	the greatest amount or level possible	The elevator has a maximum weight limit of one ton.
116 7	mayor	noun	elected head of a city or town	The mayor opened the new library downtown.
116 8	meaningful	adjective	having purpose, importance, or value	They had a meaningful conversation about their future plans.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
116 9	meanwhile	adverb	at the same time, in the period between	She cooked dinner; meanwhile, the kids set the table.
117 0	measure	noun	action taken to achieve a result, a unit of size	The government took new measures to reduce pollution.
117 1	measurement	noun	size or amount found by measuring	Please take the exact measurements of the window.
117 2	mechanic	noun	person who repairs machines, especially vehicles	The mechanic fixed the car's engine in an hour.
117 3	mechanical	adjective	relating to machines or moved by machinery	The clock has an old mechanical movement inside.
117 4	meditate	verb	to calm the mind through quiet focus	She meditates for twenty minutes every morning.
117 5	meditation	noun	practice of calming and focusing the mind	Meditation helped him deal with daily stress.
117 6	Mediterranean	noun	the sea between southern Europe and North Africa	They sailed across the Mediterranean during their holiday.
117 7	medium	adjective	middle in size, amount, or degree	I would like a medium coffee, please.
117 8	melt	verb	to change from solid to liquid by heating	The ice cream began to melt in the sun.
117 9	membership	noun	state of belonging to a group or club	She renewed her gym membership for another year.
118 0	memorable	adjective	worth remembering, easily remembered	Their wedding was a truly memorable day for everyone.
118 1	memorize	verb	to learn something so it can be recalled exactly	Students had to memorize the poem for class.
118 2	mend	verb	to repair something that is broken or torn	She mended the torn shirt with a needle and thread.
118 3	mental	adjective	relating to the mind	Regular exercise improves both physical and mental health.
118 4	mentally	adverb	in a way relating to the mind	The long race left him mentally and physically exhausted.
118 5	merchant	noun	person who buys and sells goods	The merchant sold spices at the busy market.
118 6	mere	adjective	nothing more than, used to emphasize smallness	A mere five minutes late made her miss the train.
118 7	merely	adverb	only, simply, and nothing more	He was merely trying to help, not cause trouble.
118 8	mess	noun	untidy or dirty state	Please clean up this mess before dinner.
118 9	message board	noun	online space where people post messages	She posted her question on the school message board.
119 0	messy	adjective	untidy or disorganized	His room was messy after the weekend party.
119 1	middle-aged	adjective	in the middle of adult life, between forty and sixty	A middle-aged man sat quietly reading his newspaper.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
119 2	mild	adjective	gentle or not severe	The weather has been mild this winter so far.
119 3	mile	noun	unit of distance equal to 1.6 kilometers	The nearest store is about a mile away.
119 4	mineral	noun	natural solid substance found in the earth	This water contains many healthy minerals.
119 5	minimize	verb	to reduce something to the smallest amount possible	We should minimize waste to help the environment.
119 6	minimum	adjective	the smallest amount or level possible	The minimum age to vote is eighteen in most countries.
119 7	minor	adjective	not very important, small in size or effect	It was only a minor problem, easy to fix.
119 8	minority	noun	the smaller part of a group	Only a minority of voters supported the new law.
119 9	minus	preposition	reduced by, used to subtract a number	Ten minus three equals seven.
120 0	miracle	noun	an event that seems impossible, caused by a higher power	It was a miracle that no one was hurt in the crash.
120 1	mischief	noun	playful behavior that causes minor trouble	The children got into mischief while their parents talked.
120 2	miserable	adjective	very unhappy or uncomfortable	He felt miserable after losing his favorite watch.
120 3	misery	noun	great suffering or unhappiness	The war brought misery to millions of families.
120 4	mislead	verb	to give someone a false or wrong idea	The advertisement seemed designed to mislead customers.
120 5	mission	noun	important task or purpose given to someone	Their mission was to deliver supplies to the village.
120 6	misty	adjective	full of mist, hard to see through	The valley looked misty early in the morning.
120 7	misunderstanding	noun	failure to understand something correctly	The argument started because of a simple misunderstanding.
120 8	mixing bowl	noun	large bowl used for mixing ingredients	Pour the flour into the mixing bowl first.
120 9	modal verb	noun	verb like can or must that shows ability or need	Can and must are both examples of a modal verb.
121 0	modem	noun	device that connects a computer to the internet	The internet stopped working after the modem broke.
121 1	moderate	adjective	average in amount, not extreme	The doctor recommended moderate exercise every day.
121 2	modify	verb	to change something slightly	They had to modify the plan after the storm warning.
121 3	moisture	noun	small amount of water in the air or on a surface	The plant needs moisture to grow well.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
121 4	molecule	noun	smallest unit of a chemical substance	Water is made of hydrogen and oxygen molecules.
121 5	monitor	noun	computer screen, a device that checks something	She bought a bigger monitor for her computer.
121 6	monk	noun	man who lives a religious life in a monastery	The monk spent hours praying in silence.
121 7	monster	noun	large, frightening, imaginary creature	The child was scared of the monster in the movie.
121 8	monthly	adjective	happening or done every month	She pays her monthly rent on the first of the month.
121 9	monument	noun	structure built to remember a person or event	The monument honors soldiers who died in the war.
122 0	moral	noun	lesson about right and wrong behavior	The story's moral is that honesty always pays off.
122 1	moreover	adverb	in addition, furthermore	The hotel was cheap; moreover, it was very clean.
122 2	mosquito	noun	small flying insect that bites and sucks blood	A mosquito kept buzzing around my ear all night.
122 3	moss	noun	small soft green plant that grows on damp surfaces	Green moss covered the old stone wall.
122 4	motherland	noun	a person's native country	He returned to his motherland after twenty years abroad.
122 5	motionless	adjective	not moving at all	The deer stood motionless as we walked past.
122 6	motivate	verb	to give someone a reason to act	Good teachers know how to motivate their students.
122 7	motivation	noun	reason or enthusiasm for doing something	Losing the game gave her more motivation to train.
122 8	motive	noun	reason for doing something, often a crime	Police could not find a motive for the robbery.
122 9	motor	noun	machine that produces motion or power	The boat's motor stopped working in the middle of the lake.
123 0	motorcycle	noun	two-wheeled vehicle with an engine	He rides his motorcycle to work every day.
123 1	motto	noun	short phrase expressing a belief or aim	The school's motto encourages students to always try harder.
123 2	mount	noun	mountain, used before its name	Mount Everest is the tallest mountain in the world.
123 3	mountaintop	noun	the top of a mountain	They watched the sunrise from the mountaintop.
123 4	mourn	verb	to feel deep sadness, especially after a death	The whole town mourned the loss of their beloved teacher.
123 5	movement	noun	act of moving, a group working for a shared goal	The civil rights movement changed laws across the country.
123 6	mud	noun	soft wet earth	Her boots were covered in mud after the walk.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
123 7	mule	noun	animal that is a mix of a horse and donkey	They loaded supplies onto the back of the mule.
123 8	murderer	noun	person who has killed someone	The detective finally caught the murderer after months.
123 9	muscle	noun	body tissue that produces movement	Lifting weights helps build muscle over time.
124 0	mustard	noun	yellow paste used as a condiment	He put mustard on his hot dog at the fair.
124 1	mutual	adjective	shared or felt by two or more people	They ended the relationship by mutual agreement.
124 2	myth	noun	traditional story, a widely believed but false idea	The ancient myth explains how the world began.
124 3	nail	noun	thin metal pin, hard covering on fingers and toes	He hit his thumb while hammering the nail.
124 4	naked	adjective	not wearing any clothes	The baby laughed while naked in the bath.
124 5	nap	noun	short sleep, especially during the day	She took a short nap after lunch.
124 6	narrate	verb	to tell a story, especially aloud	He narrated the documentary in a calm, deep voice.
124 7	narrative	adjective	in the form of a story	The film uses a narrative style similar to a novel.
124 8	narrow	adjective	not wide, having a small width	The car barely fit through the narrow street.
124 9	nasty	adjective	very unpleasant or unkind	He said something nasty and hurt her feelings.
125 0	nationalist	noun	person with strong loyalty to their own nation	The nationalist party won more seats in the election.
125 1	naturally	adverb	in a natural or expected manner	Naturally, she was nervous before her first flight.
125 2	navy blue	adjective	of a dark blue color	He wore a navy blue suit to the interview.
125 3	nearby	adjective	located a short distance away	We stopped for lunch at a nearby restaurant.
125 4	necklace	noun	jewelry worn around the neck	She wore a silver necklace to the wedding.
125 5	nectar	noun	sweet liquid made by flowers	Bees collect nectar from flowers to make honey.
125 6	needle	noun	thin sharp tool for sewing or injections	She threaded the needle before sewing the button.
125 7	negotiate	verb	discuss to reach an agreement	The two companies negotiated a new business deal.
125 8	negotiation	noun	discussion aimed at reaching agreement	The peace negotiation lasted for several long months.
125 9	neighborhood	noun	area within a town or city	They live in a quiet neighborhood near downtown.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
126 0	nephew	noun	son of your sibling	My nephew just started his first year at university.
126 1	nervousness	noun	feeling of worry or anxiety	She tried to hide her nervousness before the exam.
126 2	ness	noun	a narrow point of land into water	The old lighthouse stands on a rocky ness.
126 3	network	noun	system of connected people or things	The company built a large computer network last year.
126 4	neutral	adjective	not supporting either side	Switzerland remained neutral during much of the war.
126 5	nevertheless	adverb	despite that; even so	It was raining; nevertheless, we went for a walk.
126 6	newborn	adjective	very recently born	The newborn baby slept peacefully in her mother's arms.
126 7	newcomer	noun	person who has just arrived	As a newcomer, he didn't know anyone at school.
126 8	newly	adverb	very recently; not long ago	They moved into their newly built house last week.
126 9	next door	adverb	in the nearest house or room	The family that lives next door is very friendly.
127 0	next-door	adjective	living in the nearest house	Our next-door neighbor lent us some sugar yesterday.
127 1	nickname	noun	informal name for a person	Everyone at school knew him by his nickname.
127 2	niece	noun	daughter of your sibling	My niece is turning ten years old tomorrow.
127 3	nightlife	noun	entertainment available at night	The city is famous for its exciting nightlife.
127 4	nod	noun	downward movement of the head	She gave a small nod to show she understood.
127 5	noisily	adverb	in a loud, noisy way	The children ran noisily through the crowded hallway.
127 6	none	pronoun	not any of a group	None of the students finished the test early.
127 7	nonetheless	adverb	despite that; nevertheless	The trip was expensive; nonetheless, they enjoyed it.
127 8	nonsense	noun	ideas or words that are foolish	Stop talking nonsense and tell me the truth.
127 9	nor	conjunction	and not; used with neither	She doesn't like coffee, nor does she like tea.
128 0	normally	adverb	in the usual or expected way	Normally, I wake up early to go jogging.
128 1	northeast	adjective	relating to the direction between north and east	They drove along the northeast coast all morning.
128 2	northeastern	adjective	located in the northeast	She grew up in a small northeastern village.
128 3	northern	adjective	of or in the north	Winters are extremely cold in northern Canada.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
128 4	northwest	adjective	relating to the direction between north and west	A storm is moving in from the northwest region.
128 5	northwestern	adjective	located in the northwest	The company opened a factory in the northwestern province.
128 6	noticeable	adjective	easy to see or notice	There was a noticeable change in her attitude lately.
128 7	noticeboard	noun	board for displaying public notices	The schedule is pinned to the school noticeboard.
128 8	notion	noun	a belief or general idea	He had a vague notion of what happened.
128 9	notorious	adjective	famous for something bad	The gang leader was notorious for his cruelty.
129 0	novelist	noun	person who writes novels	She dreamed of becoming a famous novelist someday.
129 1	nowhere	adverb	not in or to any place	After the storm, there was nowhere to hide.
129 2	nuclear	adjective	relating to atomic energy or weapons	The country built its first nuclear power plant.
129 3	nucleus	noun	central part of a cell or atom	The nucleus of the cell contains its genetic material.
129 4	numerous	adjective	existing in large numbers	She has won numerous awards for her writing.
129 5	nutrient	noun	substance that provides nourishment	Leafy greens contain many nutrients the body needs.
129 6	nutrition	noun	process of getting food for health	Good nutrition is important for children's development.
129 7	nutritious	adjective	containing substances the body needs	She prepared a nutritious breakfast for her children.
129 8	object	noun	a physical thing you can see or touch	There was a strange object lying on the road.
129 9	objection	noun	expression of disapproval	The lawyer raised an objection during the trial.
130 0	objective	noun	goal you are trying to achieve	Our main objective is to increase customer satisfaction.
130 1	observation	noun	act of watching something carefully	The scientist recorded her observation in a notebook.
130 2	observe	verb	watch carefully; notice	Scientists observed the animals in their natural habitat.
130 3	obstacle	noun	something that blocks progress	Lack of money was a major obstacle for them.
130 4	obtain	verb	get or acquire something	You must obtain a visa before traveling abroad.
130 5	obvious	adjective	easy to see or understand	It was obvious that she had been crying.
130 6	obviously	adverb	clearly; as is easily seen	Obviously, he had forgotten about our meeting today.
130 7	occasion	noun	a particular time or event	We only use the good plates on special occasions.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1308	occasional	adjective	happening sometimes but not often	Apart from occasional rain, the weather stayed sunny.
1309	occasionally	adverb	sometimes, but not often	We occasionally meet for coffee after work.
1310	occupy	verb	fill or take up space	Boxes occupy most of the space in the garage.
1311	occur	verb	happen or take place	The accident occurred late on a Friday night.
1312	ocean	noun	a very large body of sea water	They watched the sun set over the ocean.
1313	offensive	adjective	causing anger or offense	His offensive comments upset several people at the meeting.
1314	officially	adverb	in an official, formal way	The new mayor was officially sworn in yesterday.
1315	oily	adjective	covered in or containing oil	Her hands felt oily after fixing the bicycle chain.
1316	old-fashioned	adjective	not modern; outdated in style	Grandpa still uses an old-fashioned rotary telephone.
1317	oneself	pronoun	reflexive form referring to a person in general	It is important to believe in oneself sometimes.
1318	onstage	adjective	happening on a theater stage	The actor's onstage presence captivated the entire audience.
1319	onto	preposition	to a position on a surface	The cat jumped onto the kitchen table quickly.
1320	opening	noun	a gap, or a job vacancy	There is a small opening in the fence over there.
1321	operation	noun	a planned activity, or a surgery	The surgeon performed a delicate operation on her knee.
1322	opposition	noun	strong disagreement or resistance	The new law faced strong opposition from voters.
1323	oppress	verb	treat people cruelly and unfairly	The dictator oppressed anyone who opposed his rule.
1324	oppression	noun	cruel or unjust treatment	The novel describes years of oppression under the regime.
1325	option	noun	a thing that may be chosen	Renting a car is another option for the trip.
1326	oral	noun	a spoken exam or test	She was nervous before her French oral began.
1327	orbit	noun	curved path around a planet	The satellite has stayed in orbit for years.
1328	orchestra	noun	large group of musicians playing together	The orchestra performed a beautiful symphony last night.
1329	orderly	adjective	arranged in a neat way	The students left the building in an orderly line.
1330	ordinary	adjective	normal; not special or unusual	It was just an ordinary day at the office.
1331	organ	noun	body part with a function, or musical instrument	The heart is the organ that pumps blood.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
133 2	organic	adjective	grown without artificial chemicals	They only buy organic fruit and vegetables now.
133 3	organism	noun	a single living plant or animal	A tiny organism can be seen under the microscope.
133 4	organization	noun	a group of people with a purpose	She works for a charity organization in Africa.
133 5	origin	noun	the point where something begins	Scientists still debate the origin of the universe.
133 6	otherwise	adverb	in a different way; or else	Hurry up, otherwise we will miss the train.
133 7	ought to	auxiliary	should; expresses duty or advice	You ought to apologize for being so late.
133 8	out-of-date	adjective	no longer current or valid	His passport is out-of-date and needs renewing.
133 9	outdoor	adjective	happening or used outside	We enjoy outdoor activities like hiking and camping.
134 0	outdoors	adverb	outside, not inside a building	The children love playing outdoors after school.
134 1	outer	adjective	on the outside; farther out	The outer layer of the cake was chocolate.
134 2	outlaw	noun	a criminal who avoids the law	The famous outlaw was finally caught by police.
134 3	outline	verb	describe the main points briefly	The teacher outlined the plan for next semester.
134 4	outstanding	adjective	extremely good; excellent	She received an award for her outstanding performance.
134 5	outward	adjective	appearing on the outside	Despite the bad news, he kept an outward smile.
134 6	outweigh	verb	be greater or more important than	The benefits of the plan outweigh its risks.
134 7	overcome	verb	successfully deal with a problem	She worked hard to overcome her fear of heights.
134 8	overjoyed	adjective	extremely happy	They were overjoyed when their daughter got engaged.
134 9	overnight	adjective	lasting or happening during one night	We took an overnight train to reach the coast.
135 0	overwhelm	verb	affect someone very strongly	The amount of homework began to overwhelm him.
135 1	overwhelming	adjective	very great in effect or amount	There was overwhelming support for the new policy.
135 2	overwork	noun	working too much; excessive labor	His illness was caused by stress and overwork.
135 3	owe	verb	have a duty to pay back	I still owe him fifty dollars from last month.
135 4	owing	adjective	still to be paid; due	There is a small balance still owing on the account.
135 5	oxygen	noun	gas needed for breathing	Plants release oxygen into the air during the day.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
135 6	pace	noun	speed of moving or doing something	The runner increased her pace near the finish line.
135 7	package	noun	a wrapped parcel or box	The postman delivered a small package this morning.
135 8	packing	noun	act of putting things into containers	Packing for the trip took her most of the afternoon.
135 9	paddle	noun	short oar for a small boat	He lost his paddle in the middle of the river.
136 0	paid	adjective	receiving or involving payment	She took two weeks of paid leave in July.
136 1	pain	noun	physical or emotional suffering	She felt a sharp pain in her lower back.
136 2	painful	adjective	causing physical or emotional pain	Losing the match was painful for the whole team.
136 3	pale	adjective	light in color; lacking color	She looked pale after staying up all night.
136 4	palm	noun	inner surface of the hand, or tropical tree	He held the small coin tightly in his palm.
136 5	parachute	noun	equipment for jumping safely from a plane	The pilot opened his parachute just in time.
136 6	paradise	noun	a place of perfect happiness	The island felt like paradise during our honeymoon.
136 7	paralyze	verb	make unable to move or act	The accident left him paralyzed from the waist down.
136 8	parcel	noun	a wrapped package sent by mail	A heavy parcel arrived for her this afternoon.
136 9	parental	adjective	relating to a parent or parents	The film requires parental guidance for young viewers.
137 0	parking	noun	space for leaving vehicles	We couldn't find any parking near the stadium.
137 1	parrot	noun	colorful bird that can mimic speech	The parrot repeated every word its owner said.
137 2	part-time	adjective	working fewer than usual hours	She found a part-time job at the local bakery.
137 3	partial	adjective	not complete; only in part	The insurance only covered a partial refund of costs.
137 4	participant	noun	person taking part in an activity	Every participant received a certificate at the end.
137 5	participate	verb	take part in an activity	Students are encouraged to participate in class discussions.
137 6	participle	noun	verb form used as adjective or in tenses	The past participle of 'go' is 'gone'.
137 7	particularly	adverb	especially; more than usual	The weather was particularly cold this past winter.
137 8	passion	noun	very strong feeling or enthusiasm	Her passion for music started at a young age.
137 9	passive	adjective	not active; accepting without resisting	He took a passive role during the negotiations.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1380	passport	noun	official document for international travel	Don't forget to bring your passport to the airport.
1381	password	noun	secret word used for access	She forgot her password and had to reset it.
1382	patience	noun	ability to wait calmly	Teaching young children requires a lot of patience.
1383	patrol	noun	group that guards or watches an area	A police patrol drove slowly through the neighborhood.
1384	pattern	noun	a repeated design or arrangement	The curtains had a bright floral pattern on them.
1385	pause	noun	a short stop or break	There was a long pause before she answered.
1386	peanut	noun	small edible nut from a legume plant	He is allergic to peanut butter and other nuts.
1387	peculiar	adjective	strange or unusual	There was a peculiar smell coming from the kitchen.
1388	penniless	adjective	having no money at all	He arrived in the city penniless and alone.
1389	penny	noun	small coin of low value	She found a rusty penny lying on the sidewalk.
1390	per	preposition	for each	The hotel room costs one hundred dollars per night.
1391	percent	noun	one part in every hundred	Only ten percent of applicants got the job.
1392	performer	noun	person who performs for an audience	The street performer juggled fire in front of tourists.
1393	permanent	adjective	lasting forever or for a long time	The injury caused permanent damage to his knee.
1394	permanently	adverb	in a lasting or unchanging way	The factory closed permanently after decades of operation.
1395	permit	verb	allow something to happen	Smoking is not permitted inside the restaurant.
1396	personally	adverb	from your own point of view	Personally, I would rather stay home tonight.
1397	persuade	verb	convince someone to do something	She managed to persuade her parents to let her go.
1398	persuasive	adjective	able to convince people	He gave a persuasive speech that changed many minds.
1399	phantom	adjective	not real but seeming to exist	He still feels phantom pain in his amputated leg.
1400	pharmacy	noun	shop that sells medicine	I need to pick up my prescription at the pharmacy.
1401	phenomenon	noun	a fact or event that can be observed	Lightning is a natural phenomenon that fascinates scientists.
1402	philosopher	noun	person who studies fundamental truths	The ancient Greek philosopher taught many famous students.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
140 3	philosophy	noun	study of fundamental questions about existence	She majored in philosophy at university for four years.
140 4	phoenix	noun	mythical bird reborn from ashes	The city rose again like a phoenix from ashes.
140 5	photocopy	noun	a copy made by a machine	Please make a photocopy of your identification card.
140 6	phrasal verb	noun	verb combined with a preposition or adverb	'Give up' is a common phrasal verb in English.
140 7	phrase	noun	a small group of words	He repeated the same phrase three times in class.
140 8	physics	noun	science of matter and energy	She struggled with physics during her first year.
140 9	pie	noun	baked dish with pastry and filling	Grandma baked an apple pie for the family dinner.
141 0	piety	noun	deep religious devotion	The old monk was known for his great piety.
141 1	pillow	noun	soft cushion for the head	She fluffed her pillow before going to sleep.
141 2	pin	verb	fasten with a small sharp pin	She pinned a photo to the corkboard in her room.
141 3	pineapple	noun	tropical fruit with spiky skin	We added fresh pineapple chunks to the fruit salad.
141 4	pipe	noun	tube for carrying liquid or gas	A broken pipe flooded the basement overnight.
141 5	pit	noun	deep hole, or fruit stone	Workers dug a deep pit to bury the cables.
141 6	plain	adjective	simple, without decoration	She wore a plain white dress to the interview.
141 7	platform	noun	raised area, or place for boarding trains	The train arrived at platform three on time.
141 8	pleasantly	adverb	in an agreeable, pleasing way	I was pleasantly surprised by how well it turned out.
141 9	plug	noun	device that connects to an electrical socket	He pushed the plug firmly into the wall socket.
142 0	pocket money	noun	small allowance given to a child	She saves her pocket money to buy new books.
142 1	poet	noun	person who writes poems	The young poet published her first book last spring.
142 2	poetry	noun	literary work written in verse	He reads poetry aloud to his students every Friday.
142 3	poison	noun	substance that can kill or harm	The detective suspected the wine had been laced with poison.
142 4	poisonous	adjective	containing poison; harmful if consumed	Some mushrooms in the forest are extremely poisonous.
142 5	pole	noun	long straight stick, or Earth's axis end	He used a long pole to knock down the apples.
142 6	policy	noun	official plan of action	The company changed its return policy last month.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
142 7	politely	adverb	in a polite, courteous way	He politely asked if he could borrow a pen.
142 8	politician	noun	person involved in politics or government	The local politician promised to fix the roads.
142 9	politics	noun	activities related to governing a country	She has always been interested in local politics.
143 0	pollutant	noun	substance that damages the environment	Factories released harmful pollutants into the nearby river.
143 1	pond	noun	small area of still water	Ducks swam peacefully across the small pond.
143 2	popcorn	noun	puffed corn eaten as a snack	We shared a large bag of popcorn at the cinema.
143 3	pork	noun	meat from a pig	The chef grilled pork chops with a spicy glaze.
143 4	port	noun	harbor town, or a computer socket	The ship docked safely at the busy port.
143 5	positive	adjective	hopeful, or greater than zero	She always stays positive even during difficult times.
143 6	positively	adverb	in a hopeful or definite way	The staff responded positively to the new schedule.
143 7	possess	verb	own or have something	He possesses a rare talent for painting portraits.
143 8	possession	noun	something owned; the state of owning	Her most prized possession was her grandmother's ring.
143 9	possessive	adjective	wanting to control or keep something	He became possessive about his new sports car.
144 0	possibility	noun	a chance that something may happen	There is a small possibility of rain tomorrow.
144 1	postcard	noun	card sent by mail with a picture	She sent a postcard from every city she visited.
144 2	postman	noun	person who delivers mail	The postman delivers letters to our street every morning.
144 3	pot	noun	round container for cooking or plants	She stirred the soup slowly in a large pot.
144 4	potential	noun	capacity for future development	The coach believed in the young player's potential.
144 5	pottery	noun	objects made from clay	She took a pottery class at the community center.
144 6	pound	noun	British currency, or a unit of weight	She paid twenty pounds for the concert ticket.
144 7	poverty	noun	state of being extremely poor	Many families still live in extreme poverty today.
144 8	powder	noun	dry substance of fine particles	She sprinkled powder sugar over the fresh pancakes.
144 9	practical	adjective	useful and sensible; realistic	She gave us some practical advice about budgeting money.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1450	praise	noun	expression of approval or admiration	The teacher gave him high praise for his essay.
1451	prayer	noun	words spoken to a god	She said a quiet prayer before the exam started.
1452	precious	adjective	of great value; loved deeply	The necklace was her most precious family heirloom.
1453	preference	noun	a liking for one thing over another	My preference is tea rather than coffee in mornings.
1454	prefix	noun	letters added before a word	The prefix 'un' often means 'not' in English.
1455	pregnant	adjective	carrying an unborn baby	She announced she was pregnant with her second child.
1456	prejudice	noun	unfair opinion formed without reason	The novel explores racial prejudice in the 1930s.
1457	preparation	noun	act of getting ready for something	Preparation for the wedding took nearly a year.
1458	prepared	adjective	ready for something; willing	Make sure you are prepared before the big test.
1459	preposition	noun	word showing place, time, or direction	'On' is a preposition that shows a location.
1460	preschool	adjective	for children before school age	Their daughter attends a small preschool program nearby.
1461	prescription	noun	doctor's written order for medicine	The doctor wrote a prescription for antibiotics today.
1462	presence	noun	fact of being in a place	His presence at the meeting calmed everyone down.
1463	presentation	noun	talk given to explain information	She gave a confident presentation to the entire board.
1464	preservation	noun	act of keeping something safe from harm	The group works on the preservation of ancient monuments.
1465	preserve	verb	keep something safe or unchanged	They work hard to preserve the old town center.
1466	president	noun	head of a country or organization	The president gave a speech at the United Nations.
1467	press	noun	news media, or a printing machine	Reporters from the press gathered outside the courthouse.
1468	previous	adjective	happening or existing before	Her previous job was at a small law firm.
1469	priest	noun	religious leader who performs ceremonies	The priest blessed the couple at the altar.
1470	primarily	adverb	mainly; for the most part	The funding is used primarily for medical research.
1471	primary school	noun	school for young children	Her son just started at the local primary school.
1472	primitive	adjective	simple; from an early stage	The tribe used primitive tools made of stone.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
147 3	principle	noun	a basic rule or belief	Honesty is an important principle in her family.
147 4	prison	noun	building where criminals are kept	He spent three years in prison for fraud.
147 5	prisoner	noun	person held in prison or captivity	The prisoner was released after serving his sentence.
147 6	privacy	noun	state of being free from observation	She values her privacy and rarely posts online.
147 7	prize	noun	reward given for winning	He won first prize in the science competition.
147 8	probability	noun	likelihood that something will happen	There is a high probability of snow tomorrow.
147 9	proceed	verb	continue with an action or plan	Once the road cleared, traffic began to proceed.
148 0	process	noun	series of steps to reach a result	Learning a new language is a slow process.
148 1	proclaim	verb	announce something officially and publicly	The king proclaimed a national holiday that year.
148 2	procrastination	noun	habit of delaying tasks	His procrastination caused him to miss the deadline.
148 3	producer	noun	person or company that makes something	The film's producer raised money from several investors.
148 4	productive	adjective	producing a lot; efficient	The meeting was short but very productive today.
148 5	profession	noun	job requiring special training	Teaching is a demanding but rewarding profession.
148 6	professor	noun	senior university teacher	The professor explained the theory in great detail.
148 7	progress	noun	forward movement or improvement	The doctors were pleased with her steady progress.
148 8	prohibition	noun	official act of forbidding something	There is a strict prohibition on smoking indoors.
148 9	prominent	adjective	important and well known	A prominent scientist spoke at the conference yesterday.
149 0	promote	verb	raise in rank, or support publicly	The company decided to promote her to manager.
149 1	promotion	noun	advancement in rank, or publicity	She celebrated her promotion with dinner and friends.
149 2	pronoun	noun	word used in place of a noun	'She' is a pronoun that replaces a name.
149 3	proof	noun	evidence that shows something is true	The photo was proof that he had been there.
149 4	properly	adverb	correctly; in the right way	Make sure the door is properly closed at night.
149 5	property	noun	something owned, especially land or buildings	The old farmhouse is now private property.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
149 6	proportion	noun	part of a whole; ratio	A large proportion of students passed the final exam.
149 7	proposal	noun	plan or suggestion offered formally	The committee accepted her proposal for the new park.
149 8	propose	verb	suggest a plan, or ask to marry	He planned to propose to her on their anniversary.
149 9	prosperity	noun	state of being successful and wealthy	The nation enjoyed decades of peace and prosperity.
150 0	prosperous	adjective	successful and financially wealthy	The town became prosperous after the factory opened.
150 1	protect	verb	keep someone or something safe	Sunscreen helps protect your skin from the sun.
150 2	protection	noun	the act of keeping something safe	The helmet gives good protection in an accident.
150 3	protective	adjective	giving or intended to give protection	Wear protective gloves when you clean the oven.
150 4	protest	noun	a strong objection or complaint	Hundreds of people joined the protest outside parliament.
150 5	proud	adjective	feeling pleased about an achievement	She felt proud when she passed her final exam.
150 6	prove	verb	show that something is true	The new evidence proved that he was innocent.
150 7	proverb	noun	a short traditional wise saying	My grandmother often quotes an old English proverb.
150 8	provided	conjunction	on the condition that	You can borrow my car, provided you drive carefully.
150 9	psychological	adjective	relating to the mind or mental states	Losing a job can cause serious psychological problems.
151 0	pub	noun	a place that serves drinks	We met our friends at the local pub.
151 1	public transport	noun	buses, trains, and other shared transport	Public transport in the city is cheap and fast.
151 2	publicly	adverb	in a way that is public, openly	The mayor publicly apologized for the mistake.
151 3	publisher	noun	a company that produces books	She sent her manuscript to several publishers.
151 4	pullover	noun	a knitted sweater pulled over the head	He wore a warm wool pullover in winter.
151 5	pump	noun	a device that moves liquid or gas	We stopped at the gas pump to fill up.
151 6	punish	verb	make someone suffer for an offense	The teacher decided to punish the students for cheating.
151 7	punishment	noun	a penalty for doing something wrong	The judge gave him a harsh punishment for the crime.
151 8	pupil	noun	a school student, or part of the eye	Every pupil in the class passed the exam.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
151 9	puppy	noun	a young dog	The puppy chased its tail around the garden.
152 0	pure	adjective	not mixed with anything else	This necklace is made of pure gold.
152 1	purify	verb	make something clean or pure	This machine can purify dirty water quickly.
152 2	purse	noun	a small bag for money	She kept her keys in her purse.
152 3	puzzle	noun	a game or problem to solve	The children spent hours solving the jigsaw puzzle.
152 4	quake	noun	an earthquake, informal	A small quake shook the city early this morning.
152 5	qualified	adjective	having the right skills or training	You need a qualified electrician to fix this wiring.
152 6	qualify	verb	reach the required standard	Our team needs one more win to qualify for the finals.
152 7	quantity	noun	an amount of something	The recipe needs a small quantity of salt.
152 8	question mark	noun	the punctuation mark showing a question	Remember to put a question mark at the end.
152 9	questionnaire	noun	a set of written questions for research	Please fill out this short questionnaire about our service.
153 0	queue	noun	a line of people waiting	We had to stand in a long queue for tickets.
153 1	race	noun	a competition to see who is fastest	He won the race by just two seconds.
153 2	racial	adjective	relating to a person's race	The company was accused of racial discrimination in hiring.
153 3	radiation	noun	energy given off as particles or waves	Workers wore suits to protect against radiation.
153 4	rage	noun	violent, uncontrollable anger	He shouted in a fit of rage after the crash.
153 5	rail	noun	a bar to hold onto, or railway track	Hold the rail tightly as you go down the stairs.
153 6	railroad	noun	a railway, American English	The old railroad no longer carries passenger trains.
153 7	railway	noun	a track for trains	The railway station was crowded during rush hour.
153 8	rainfall	noun	the amount of rain that falls	The region gets heavy rainfall in the summer months.
153 9	rainforest	noun	a dense tropical forest	The Amazon rainforest is home to millions of species.
154 0	rank	noun	a position in a hierarchy	He rose quickly through the ranks of the army.
154 1	rapid	adjective	happening very quickly	The city has seen rapid growth in the last decade.
154 2	rapidly	adverb	in a fast way	Prices have risen rapidly over the past few months.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
154 3	rare	adjective	not common, unusual	This bird is a rare sight in the city.
154 4	rarely	adverb	not often, seldom	He rarely eats meat these days.
154 5	raspberry	noun	a small red or purple berry	She picked fresh raspberries from the garden bush.
154 6	ration	noun	a fixed amount allowed to each person	During the war, each family got a food ration.
154 7	rational	adjective	based on reason, sensible	We need a rational explanation for these strange results.
154 8	razor	noun	a tool for shaving hair	He cut himself shaving with an old razor.
154 9	react	verb	respond to something that happens	How did your parents react to the news?
155 0	realistic	adjective	seeing things as they really are	You need to be realistic about your chances of winning.
155 1	reality	noun	the way things really are	Her dream of becoming a singer finally became reality.
155 2	rearrange	verb	change the order or position of things	We had to rearrange the furniture to fit the sofa.
155 3	reasonable	adjective	fair and sensible	The hotel charges a reasonable price for the room.
155 4	rebuild	verb	build something again	The town worked together to rebuild after the flood.
155 5	recall	verb	remember something from the past	I can't recall exactly where I left my keys.
155 6	reception	noun	the desk where visitors are welcomed	Please leave your bags at the hotel reception.
155 7	recite	verb	say a text aloud from memory	Each student had to recite a poem in class.
155 8	reclaim	verb	get something back that was lost	She went to the office to reclaim her lost bag.
155 9	recognize	verb	know someone or something you've seen before	I almost didn't recognize you with your new haircut.
156 0	recommend	verb	suggest something as good or suitable	Could you recommend a good restaurant near here?
156 1	recording	noun	sound or video saved for later	We listened to a recording of the interview.
156 2	recover	verb	get better after illness or damage	It took her weeks to recover from the flu.
156 3	recovery	noun	the process of getting better	Doctors say her recovery from surgery is going well.
156 4	recycled	adjective	processed for reuse, not new	This notebook is made from recycled paper.
156 5	recycling	noun	turning waste into reusable material	The city introduced a new recycling program last year.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
156 6	reduce	verb	make something smaller or less	We should reduce the amount of sugar we eat.
156 7	reduction	noun	a decrease in size or amount	The store offered a reduction on all winter clothes.
156 8	reef	noun	a ridge of rock or coral	Divers explored the coral reef near the coast.
156 9	referee	noun	an official who enforces rules in sport	The referee gave the player a yellow card.
157 0	reflection	noun	an image seen in a mirror	She saw her reflection in the shop window.
157 1	refreshments	noun	food and drinks served at an event	Light refreshments will be served after the meeting.
157 2	refund	noun	money given back to a customer	The shop gave me a full refund for the broken item.
157 3	refusal	noun	an act of saying no	His refusal to apologize made the argument worse.
157 4	refuse	noun	waste material, rubbish	Household refuse is collected every Tuesday morning.
157 5	regain	verb	get something back after losing it	The team fought hard to regain the lead.
157 6	regard	verb	view someone or something a certain way	Many people regard him as the best player alive.
157 7	regarding	preposition	about or concerning something	I have a question regarding your recent order.
157 8	region	noun	an area of a country or the world	This wine comes from a region in southern France.
157 9	regional	adjective	relating to a particular region	The company opened a new regional office in Texas.
158 0	register	noun	an official written list or record	The teacher checked the register before the lesson started.
158 1	registration	noun	the act of officially recording something	Registration for the course closes at the end of July.
158 2	regulation	noun	an official rule or law	New safety regulations were introduced for factory workers.
158 3	reject	verb	refuse to accept something	The bank rejected his application for a loan.
158 4	relate	verb	show a connection between things	It's hard to relate these two events to each other.
158 5	relation	noun	a connection between things or people	There is a close relation between diet and health.
158 6	relationship	noun	the way people or things are connected	They have a strong relationship built on trust.
158 7	relative	adjective	considered in comparison to something else	The two houses are similar in relative size.
158 8	relatively	adverb	in comparison with other things	The exam was relatively easy compared to last year's.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
158 9	relaxing	adjective	helping you feel calm and rested	We spent a relaxing weekend at the beach house.
159 0	reliable	adjective	able to be trusted, consistent	My old car is still very reliable after ten years.
159 1	religion	noun	belief in and worship of a god	Freedom of religion is protected by the constitution.
159 2	religious	adjective	relating to religion or faith	Her family follows strict religious traditions every week.
159 3	rely	verb	depend on someone or something	Small businesses often rely on local customers.
159 4	remainder	noun	the part that is left over	She spent the remainder of the day reading quietly.
159 5	remark	verb	say something as a comment	He remarked that the food was surprisingly good.
159 6	remarkable	adjective	unusual and worth noting	The team made a remarkable comeback in the second half.
159 7	remedy	noun	a treatment or cure for a problem	Honey and lemon are a classic remedy for a cold.
159 8	remembrance	noun	the act of remembering someone or something	The town held a service in remembrance of the soldiers.
159 9	remote control	noun	a device to operate something from a distance	Where did you put the remote control for the TV?
160 0	remove	verb	take something away or off	Please remove your shoes before entering the house.
160 1	renew	verb	make something valid or new again	I need to renew my passport before the trip.
160 2	repay	verb	pay back money owed	It will take years to repay the student loan.
160 3	repeatedly	adverb	again and again	She repeatedly asked him to turn down the music.
160 4	representative	noun	a person who acts on behalf of others	A sales representative called to explain the new offer.
160 5	reproduce	verb	produce offspring, or copy something exactly	Rabbits reproduce much faster than most other mammals.
160 6	republic	noun	a country led by elected representatives	France became a republic after the revolution.
160 7	reputation	noun	the opinion people generally have of someone	The restaurant has a great reputation for fresh seafood.
160 8	require	verb	need something for a purpose	This job requires excellent communication skills.
160 9	requirement	noun	something that is needed or demanded	A degree is a basic requirement for this position.
161 0	rescue	noun	an act of saving someone from danger	Firefighters carried out a dramatic rescue from the fire.
161 1	researcher	noun	a person who studies a subject in detail	The researcher spent years studying ocean pollution.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
161 2	resemble	verb	look or seem like something else	The twins resemble each other so closely people mix them up.
161 3	reservation	noun	an arrangement made in advance	We made a reservation at the restaurant for eight o'clock.
161 4	reserve	noun	an area protected for wildlife	The nature reserve protects several rare bird species.
161 5	resident	adjective	living permanently in a place	Only resident students can use the campus gym for free.
161 6	residential	adjective	relating to homes rather than businesses	The new mall was built in a quiet residential area.
161 7	resist	verb	refuse to accept or fight against something	It was hard to resist the smell of fresh bread.
161 8	resolve	verb	find a solution to a problem	The two countries agreed to resolve the dispute peacefully.
161 9	resort	noun	a place people visit for a holiday	We spent a week at a beach resort in Spain.
162 0	resource	noun	something useful that can be used	Water is a precious natural resource in this region.
162 1	respect	noun	admiration for someone's qualities	Students should treat their teachers with respect.
162 2	respectable	adjective	considered proper and acceptable	He comes from a respectable middle class family.
162 3	respond	verb	reply or react to something	She didn't respond to my email for three days.
162 4	responsibility	noun	a duty to deal with something	Taking care of the dog is your responsibility now.
162 5	responsible	adjective	having a duty to take care of something	Parents are responsible for their children's safety.
162 6	rest	noun	a period of relaxing, or what remains	After the long hike, we took a short rest.
162 7	restore	verb	bring something back to its original state	The museum spent years restoring the old painting.
162 8	restrict	verb	put a limit on something	The new law will restrict the sale of plastic bags.
162 9	retail	noun	the selling of goods to the public	She has worked in retail for over ten years.
163 0	retain	verb	continue to have or keep something	The company managed to retain most of its staff.
163 1	retell	verb	tell a story again, often differently	The film retells an old fairy tale in a modern way.
163 2	retrospect	noun	thinking back about the past	In retrospect, moving to the city was the right choice.
163 3	reunification	noun	the process of joining separated parts again	East and West Germany completed reunification in 1990.
163 4	reunify	verb	bring separated parts together again	The leaders hoped to reunify the divided nation.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
163 5	revise	verb	change something to correct or improve it	Students should revise their notes before the final exam.
163 6	revision	noun	a change made to improve something	The final draft needed one more round of revision.
163 7	reward	noun	something given for good behavior or effort	The dog got a treat as a reward for sitting.
163 8	rewrite	verb	write something again in a different way	The editor asked her to rewrite the whole chapter.
163 9	rid	verb	free something of an unwanted thing	They worked hard to rid the city of crime.
164 0	riddle	verb	fill something full of holes	Bullets riddled the old wall during the battle.
164 1	ridiculous	adjective	very silly or unreasonable	It's ridiculous to expect us to finish this today.
164 2	ripe	adjective	fully grown and ready to eat	These bananas are ripe enough to eat now.
164 3	rise	noun	an increase, or upward movement	There has been a sharp rise in food prices.
164 4	risk	noun	the possibility of danger or loss	Smoking increases the risk of heart disease.
164 5	roadside	noun	the edge of a road	The car broke down and we waited by the roadside.
164 6	robot	noun	a machine that can do tasks automatically	The factory uses a robot to assemble car parts.
164 7	rolling	adjective	gently rising and falling	The farm sits among gentle rolling hills.
164 8	rotten	adjective	decayed and spoiled	Throw away that rotten fruit at the back of the fridge.
164 9	rough	adjective	not smooth, or difficult	The road became very rough after the storm.
165 0	routine	noun	a regular way of doing things	Getting up early is part of my daily routine.
165 1	rubber	noun	a strong flexible material	The tires are made of thick, durable rubber.
165 2	rubbish	noun	waste material, or nonsense	Please put your rubbish in the correct bin.
165 3	rudely	adverb	in an impolite way	He rudely interrupted her while she was speaking.
165 4	runaway	noun	a person who has left home or escaped	The shelter offers a safe place for teenage runaways.
165 5	runway	noun	the strip a plane takes off from	The plane waited on the runway before takeoff.
165 6	sacred	adjective	connected with religion, holy	This temple has been a sacred site for centuries.
165 7	sadness	noun	the feeling of being sad	She felt a deep sadness after her dog died.
165 8	safari	noun	a trip to see wild animals	We went on a safari to see lions and elephants.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1659	safeguard	noun	something that protects against harm	The law includes safeguards to protect children online.
1660	safely	adverb	without harm or risk	Please drive safely on the icy roads tonight.
1661	safety	noun	the condition of being safe	Road safety is important for all drivers.
1662	salesman	noun	a man who sells goods	The salesman convinced her to buy a new car.
1663	salmon	noun	a large pink fleshed fish	We grilled fresh salmon for dinner last night.
1664	sand	noun	fine grains found on beaches	The children built a castle out of wet sand.
1665	sandal	noun	an open shoe worn in warm weather	She wore comfortable sandals for the beach walk.
1666	satellite	noun	an object that orbits a planet	The satellite sends weather pictures back to earth.
1667	satisfaction	noun	a feeling of pleasure from achieving something	He smiled with satisfaction after finishing the project.
1668	satisfied	adjective	pleased because a need is met	Most customers seem satisfied with the new service.
1669	saucepan	noun	a deep pan with a handle for cooking	Heat the soup gently in a small saucepan.
1670	saucer	noun	a small plate placed under a cup	She placed the teacup carefully on its saucer.
1671	scan	noun	a medical image, or a quick look	The doctor ordered a scan to check for injuries.
1672	scare	verb	make someone afraid	The loud thunder scared the little boy.
1673	scared	adjective	feeling very afraid	She was too scared to open the door alone.
1674	scary	adjective	causing feelings of fear	The old house looked scary in the dark.
1675	scatter	verb	throw or spread things in different directions	The wind scattered the leaves across the yard.
1676	scenic	adjective	having beautiful natural scenery	We drove along a scenic route through the mountains.
1677	scholar	noun	a person who studies a subject deeply	The scholar spent decades researching ancient languages.
1678	scholarship	noun	money awarded to support a student's studies	She won a scholarship to study medicine abroad.
1679	schoolmate	noun	a fellow student at the same school	I bumped into an old schoolmate at the mall.
1680	schoolteacher	noun	a person who teaches at a school	Her mother works as a schoolteacher in the village.
1681	science fiction	noun	fiction based on imagined future science	He loves reading science fiction novels about space travel.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
168 2	scold	verb	criticize someone angrily for doing wrong	The teacher scolded the boys for fighting in class.
168 3	scope	noun	the range of a subject or activity	The scope of the project grew larger than planned.
168 4	score	noun	the number of points scored	The final score of the match was two to one.
168 5	scratch	noun	a small cut or mark on a surface	The cat left a scratch on his arm.
168 6	sculpture	noun	a work of art carved or shaped	The artist created a huge sculpture out of stone.
168 7	season	noun	one of the four parts of the year	Autumn is my favorite season of the year.
168 8	seawater	noun	water from the sea	The pool is filled with fresh seawater every morning.
168 9	seaweed	noun	plants that grow in the sea	Seaweed washed up along the shore after the storm.
169 0	second-hand	adjective	previously owned, not new	He bought a second-hand bike to save money.
169 1	secondary school	noun	a school for older children, after primary	She started secondary school when she turned eleven.
169 2	secretly	adverb	without others knowing	He secretly planned a surprise party for his wife.
169 3	secure	adjective	safe from danger or loss	Make sure the ladder feels secure before you climb.
169 4	security	noun	protection from danger or threat	Airport security checks take longer during holidays.
169 5	seize	verb	take hold of something quickly and firmly	Police seized several boxes of stolen goods.
169 6	select	adjective	carefully chosen, exclusive	Only a select group of guests were invited to the launch.
169 7	selection	noun	a range of things to choose from	The bakery offers a wide selection of fresh bread.
169 8	self-service	adjective	where customers serve themselves	The new cafe has a self-service coffee machine.
169 9	selfish	adjective	caring only about oneself	It was selfish of him to take all the credit.
170 0	sensation	noun	a physical feeling, or great excitement	She felt a strange sensation in her fingers.
170 1	separation	noun	the act of being kept apart	The separation from her family was very difficult.
170 2	sequence	noun	a set of things in a particular order	Put the pictures in the correct sequence to tell the story.
170 3	series	noun	a number of related things or events	The channel is showing a new drama series tonight.
170 4	serious	adjective	important and not funny, or severe	The accident caused serious damage to the car.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
170 5	server	noun	a computer that provides data, or a waiter	The website crashed when the server went down.
170 6	service	noun	help or work provided to others	The restaurant is known for its excellent service.
170 7	session	noun	a period of time for an activity	We booked a training session for next Monday.
170 8	setting	noun	the place and time of a story	The film's setting is a small town in Ireland.
170 9	settle	verb	move to live somewhere permanently	They decided to settle in a quiet coastal town.
171 0	settlement	noun	a small community, or an agreement	Archaeologists found an ancient settlement near the river.
171 1	settler	noun	a person who settles in a new area	Early settlers built small wooden cabins in the valley.
171 2	severe	adjective	very serious or intense	The storm caused severe damage to several houses.
171 3	severely	adverb	to a very serious extent	The bridge was severely damaged in the earthquake.
171 4	sex	noun	being male or female, or physical intimacy	The form asks for your name, age, and sex.
171 5	shadowy	adjective	dark and full of shadows, or unclear	A shadowy figure stood at the end of the alley.
171 6	shallow	adjective	not very deep	Children can safely swim in the shallow end of the pool.
171 7	shame	noun	a painful feeling of guilt, or a pity	It's a shame that you can't come to the party.
171 8	shameful	adjective	deserving to feel shame	It was shameful how the players treated the referee.
171 9	sharp	adjective	having a fine edge, or sudden and clear	Be careful, that knife is extremely sharp.
172 0	shave	verb	remove hair close to the skin	He shaves every morning before going to work.
172 1	sheer	adjective	complete and total, or very steep	It took sheer determination to finish the marathon.
172 2	sheet	noun	a flat piece of paper	She changed the sheet on the bed this morning.
172 3	shelter	noun	a place giving protection from danger	They found shelter from the storm under a bridge.
172 4	sheriff	noun	a local law enforcement officer, US	The sheriff arrested the man for stealing a horse.
172 5	shift	verb	move from one place or position to another	Public opinion has started to shift on this issue.
172 6	shiny	adjective	bright and reflecting light	She polished the car until it looked shiny.
172 7	shiver	verb	shake slightly from cold or fear	She began to shiver in the cold night air.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1728	shocked	adjective	very surprised and upset	We were shocked to hear about the accident.
1729	shocking	adjective	causing great surprise or distress	The news report showed shocking pictures of the flood.
1730	shopper	noun	a person who is shopping	The mall was full of shoppers before the holidays.
1731	shortage	noun	a lack of something needed	The country is facing a serious water shortage.
1732	shortly	adverb	soon, in a short time	The train will arrive shortly, so please wait here.
1733	shrimp	noun	a small edible shellfish	We ordered grilled shrimp with garlic and lemon.
1734	sickness	noun	illness, or the feeling of being unwell	Morning sickness is common in early pregnancy.
1735	sidewalk	noun	a path for walking beside a road	Children rode their bikes along the sidewalk.
1736	sigh	noun	a long deep breath showing emotion	She let out a sigh of relief when he arrived safely.
1737	signal	noun	a sign that gives information or a warning	The driver gave a signal before turning left.
1738	signature	noun	a person's name written by hand	Please put your signature at the bottom of the form.
1739	significance	noun	importance or meaning	Historians still debate the significance of this treaty.
1740	signpost	noun	a sign showing directions	Follow the signpost to reach the old castle.
1741	silent	adjective	completely quiet, without sound	The whole class went silent when the teacher walked in.
1742	silk	noun	a smooth fabric made from silkworm thread	She wore a beautiful dress made of pure silk.
1743	similarity	noun	a way in which things are alike	There is a strong similarity between the two paintings.
1744	similarly	adverb	in a similar way	Similarly, the second experiment produced the same result.
1745	simplify	verb	make something easier to understand or do	The new app aims to simplify the payment process.
1746	simultaneously	adverb	at the same time	The two teams finished the race simultaneously.
1747	skeleton	noun	the frame of bones in a body	The museum displayed a full dinosaur skeleton.
1748	skin	noun	the outer covering of a body	Use sunscreen to protect your skin outside.
1749	skyscraper	noun	a very tall building	New York is famous for its many skyscrapers.
1750	slavery	noun	the state of being owned as property	Slavery was officially abolished in the United States in 1865.
1751	sleeve	noun	part of a garment covering the arm	She rolled up her sleeve before washing the dishes.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
175 2	slight	noun	an insult or act of disrespect	He felt hurt by the slight from his old friend.
175 3	slightly	adverb	to a small degree	The soup tasted slightly too salty for her liking.
175 4	slip	noun	small piece of paper, minor mistake	He wrote his phone number on a small slip of paper.
175 5	slogan	noun	short memorable phrase used in advertising	The company created a catchy slogan for its new product.
175 6	slope	noun	surface that slants up or down	The skiers raced down the steep slope quickly.
175 7	slot	noun	narrow opening, scheduled time period	Please insert your card into the slot to pay.
175 8	smoker	noun	person who smokes tobacco regularly	The hotel offers separate rooms for smokers and nonsmokers.
175 9	sneeze	noun	sudden burst of air from the nose	He let out a loud sneeze during the meeting.
176 0	snowboard	noun	board used to glide over snow	She bought a new snowboard for the winter season.
176 1	snowstorm	noun	storm with heavy snow and strong wind	The snowstorm forced schools to close for two days.
176 2	soap opera	noun	TV drama series about everyday lives	My grandmother never misses her favorite soap opera.
176 3	social networking	noun	using websites to connect with people	Social networking has changed the way teenagers communicate.
176 4	socially	adverb	in a way related to society or friends	He is socially awkward but very kind at heart.
176 5	soil	verb	to make something dirty	Try not to soil your new shirt during lunch.
176 6	solid	adjective	firm and stable, not liquid or gas	The ice had frozen into a solid block overnight.
176 7	somehow	adverb	in a way not known or specified	Somehow, they managed to finish the project on time.
176 8	someplace	adverb	in or to some unspecified place	Let's go someplace quiet to talk about this.
176 9	sometime	adverb	at an unspecified point in time	We should meet for coffee sometime next week.
177 0	sometimes	adverb	on some occasions, not always	Sometimes I forget where I put my keys.
177 1	soothe	verb	to calm or comfort someone	She sang softly to soothe the crying baby.
177 2	sophomore	noun	student in their second year	As a sophomore, she finally felt comfortable on campus.
177 3	sore	adjective	painful or aching	My legs were sore after running the marathon.
177 4	sorrow	noun	deep feeling of sadness	She felt great sorrow after losing her grandmother.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
177 5	sort	noun	a type or kind of something	What sort of music do you enjoy listening to?
177 6	soul	noun	the spiritual part of a person	She believed the soul lives on after death.
177 7	sour	adjective	having a sharp, acidic taste	The lemon was too sour to eat on its own.
177 8	southeast	adjective	relating to the direction between south and east	They drove toward the southeast coast for vacation.
177 9	southern	adjective	located in or coming from the south	She grew up in a small southern town.
178 0	southwest	adjective	relating to the direction between south and west	The storm moved in from the southwest region.
178 1	souvenir	noun	item kept as a reminder of a trip	He bought a small souvenir from every city he visited.
178 2	sparkle	noun	small flash of light or brightness	The sparkle in her eyes showed how excited she was.
178 3	specialist	noun	person with expert knowledge in a field	The doctor referred her to a specialist for further tests.
178 4	specialize	verb	to focus on a particular area of work	She decided to specialize in pediatric medicine after graduation.
178 5	specially	adverb	for a particular purpose	This cake was specially made for her birthday party.
178 6	spectacular	adjective	very impressive or dramatic	The fireworks display was absolutely spectacular last night.
178 7	spectator	noun	person who watches an event	Thousands of spectators cheered at the football match.
178 8	spelling	noun	the way a word is written correctly	Her spelling improved a lot after weekly practice tests.
178 9	sphere	noun	round three-dimensional shape, area of activity	The moon appears as a bright sphere in the sky.
179 0	spice	noun	substance used to flavor food	She added a pinch of spice to the curry.
179 1	spicy	adjective	having a strong, hot flavor	He loves eating spicy food with lots of chili.
179 2	spider	noun	small eight-legged creature that spins webs	A large spider crawled across the kitchen ceiling.
179 3	spinach	noun	leafy green vegetable	She added fresh spinach to the salad for extra iron.
179 4	spiral	adjective	winding continuously around a center point	The staircase had a spiral design leading to the tower.
179 5	spirit	noun	a person's mood, character, or a ghost	The team showed great spirit despite losing the game.
179 6	spiritual	adjective	relating to the soul, not physical things	She found the retreat to be a deeply spiritual experience.
179 7	spoil	verb	to ruin something, or overindulge someone	Don't spoil the ending by telling me what happens.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
179 8	sponge	noun	soft porous material used for cleaning	She wiped the counter clean with a damp sponge.
179 9	sponsor	noun	person or company that funds an activity	The marathon found a new sponsor for next year's race.
180 0	sports	adjective	relating to or used for sport	He bought a new pair of sports shoes yesterday.
180 1	sportsmanship	noun	fair and honest behavior in sports	The coach praised her sportsmanship after the tough loss.
180 2	stable	adjective	steady, not likely to change	The patient's condition remained stable throughout the night.
180 3	stall	noun	small stand for selling goods	She bought fresh vegetables from a market stall.
180 4	standard	noun	level of quality used for comparison	The factory maintains a high standard of quality control.
180 5	stare	verb	to look fixedly at something	It's rude to stare at strangers on the street.
180 6	status	noun	social standing, or current state of things	Please check the status of your order online.
180 7	steadily	adverb	in a gradual, consistent way	The company's profits have grown steadily over the years.
180 8	steady	adjective	firmly fixed or consistent, not changing	He kept a steady pace throughout the long race.
180 9	steam	noun	hot vapor produced from boiling water	Steam rose from the pot of boiling soup.
181 0	steel	noun	strong metal made from iron and carbon	The bridge was built using thick steel beams.
181 1	steep	adjective	rising or falling sharply	The trail became steep as we climbed the mountain.
181 2	stem	verb	to originate from, or stop a flow	Her fear of dogs seems to stem from a childhood accident.
181 3	stick	verb	to attach to something or remain fixed	The gum will stick to your shoe if you step on it.
181 4	sticker	noun	small adhesive label or picture	The kids covered their notebooks with colorful stickers.
181 5	sticky	adjective	tending to stick to things	Her hands were sticky after eating the candy.
181 6	stir	verb	to mix a liquid using a spoon	Stir the sauce continuously so it doesn't burn.
181 7	storage	noun	space or act of keeping things for later	We rented a unit for extra storage during the move.
181 8	stormy	adjective	characterized by strong wind and rain	The sailors stayed in port because of the stormy weather.
181 9	storyteller	noun	person who tells or writes stories	The old storyteller kept the children spellbound for hours.
182 0	strain	noun	mental or physical stress, tension	The long hours at work put a strain on his health.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
182 1	strangely	adverb	in an odd or unusual way	The dog was acting strangely all afternoon.
182 2	strategic	adjective	carefully planned to achieve a goal	The company made a strategic decision to expand overseas.
182 3	straw	noun	thin tube for drinking, or dried grain stalks	She sipped her drink through a bright pink straw.
182 4	strawberry	noun	small red fruit with seeds outside	We picked fresh strawberries from the garden this morning.
182 5	stream	noun	small narrow river, or continuous flow	They crossed a small stream on their hike through the forest.
182 6	strengthen	verb	to make something stronger	Regular exercise helps strengthen your muscles and bones.
182 7	stress	noun	mental tension caused by pressure	Work stress can affect both your body and mind.
182 8	stressed	adjective	feeling mental or emotional strain	She felt stressed about the upcoming final exams.
182 9	stressful	adjective	causing mental or emotional strain	Moving to a new city can be quite stressful.
183 0	stretch	verb	to extend or pull to make longer	She likes to stretch her legs before running.
183 1	stricken	adjective	seriously affected by something bad	The stricken ship began to sink slowly into the sea.
183 2	strip	noun	long narrow piece of material	He cut the paper into a thin strip.
183 3	stripe	noun	long narrow band of color	The shirt had a bold red stripe down the side.
183 4	struggle	noun	hard effort to achieve something difficult	Learning a new language can be a real struggle.
183 5	stubborn	adjective	refusing to change one's mind	He is too stubborn to admit he was wrong.
183 6	stuck	adjective	unable to move or make progress	Our car got stuck in the mud after the storm.
183 7	studio	noun	room used for art, film, or recording	The band spent weeks recording their album in the studio.
183 8	stuffed	adjective	filled tightly, or very full after eating	I felt completely stuffed after the huge dinner.
183 9	stumble	verb	to trip or nearly fall while walking	She stumbled over a rock on the dark trail.
184 0	stun	verb	to shock or amaze someone greatly	The news of her promotion stunned her coworkers.
184 1	stunning	adjective	extremely impressive or beautiful	The view from the mountaintop was absolutely stunning.
184 2	stupid	adjective	lacking intelligence or good sense	It was stupid of me to forget my umbrella.
184 3	stylish	adjective	fashionable and elegant in appearance	She wore a stylish jacket to the interview.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
184 4	subconscious	adjective	relating to the mind below full awareness	Her subconscious fears often appeared in her dreams.
184 5	submarine	noun	ship that can travel underwater	The navy launched a new submarine last month.
184 6	substantial	adjective	large in size, amount, or importance	The company reported a substantial increase in profits.
184 7	substitute	noun	person or thing that replaces another	The teacher arranged a substitute for her sick day.
184 8	suddenly	adverb	quickly and unexpectedly	Suddenly, the lights went out across the whole street.
184 9	suffer	verb	to experience pain, illness, or hardship	Many patients suffer from chronic back pain.
185 0	sufficient	adjective	enough for a particular purpose	We didn't have sufficient time to finish the project.
185 1	suffix	noun	letter group added to end of a word	The suffix -ly changes an adjective into an adverb.
185 2	suicide	noun	act of intentionally ending one's own life	The clinic offers counseling to prevent suicide among teens.
185 3	summarize	verb	to give a brief statement of main points	Can you summarize the article in a few sentences?
185 4	summit	noun	top of a mountain, or top-level meeting	They finally reached the summit after a long climb.
185 5	sunbathe	verb	to lie in the sun to get a tan	They spent the afternoon sunbathing on the beach.
185 6	sundial	noun	device that shows time using sunlight	The old sundial in the garden still tells accurate time.
185 7	sunrise	noun	time when the sun rises	We woke up early to watch the sunrise over the ocean.
185 8	sunset	noun	time when the sun sets	They walked along the beach at sunset every evening.
185 9	superior	adjective	higher in quality, rank, or status	This brand offers superior quality at a fair price.
186 0	superstition	noun	belief not based on reason or evidence	It's a common superstition that black cats bring bad luck.
186 1	supply	noun	amount of something available for use	The store ran out of its supply of bottled water.
186 2	supporter	noun	person who supports a cause or team	Thousands of supporters gathered to cheer for the team.
186 3	supportive	adjective	providing encouragement or emotional help	Her family was very supportive during her illness.
186 4	suppose	verb	to think that something is likely true	I suppose she will arrive around six o'clock.
186 5	supposedly	adverb	according to what is said, not certain	Supposedly, the old house is haunted by ghosts.
186 6	surely	adverb	used to show confidence something is true	Surely you remember meeting her at the party.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
186 7	surface	noun	the outside or top layer of something	Dust had settled on the surface of the table.
186 8	surgeon	noun	doctor who performs surgical operations	The surgeon operated on her knee for two hours.
186 9	surgery	noun	medical operation involving cutting into the body	He needed surgery to repair his broken arm.
187 0	surprisingly	adverb	in a way that causes surprise	Surprisingly, the test turned out to be quite easy.
187 1	surround	verb	to be or go all around something	Tall trees surround the small cabin in the woods.
187 2	surrounding	adjective	located around or near a place	The surrounding hills were covered in green forest.
187 3	survival	noun	the state of continuing to live	Fresh water is essential for human survival.
187 4	survivor	noun	person who continues to live after a disaster	The rescue team found a survivor beneath the rubble.
187 5	suspect	noun	person believed to have committed a crime	Police arrested a suspect near the crime scene.
187 6	suspicion	noun	a feeling that something is wrong, without proof	Her strange behavior raised the neighbor's suspicion.
187 7	swarm	noun	large group of insects moving together	A swarm of bees flew past the picnic table.
187 8	swear	verb	to promise solemnly, or curse	I swear I didn't take your notebook.
187 9	sweatshirt	noun	loose warm cotton pullover	He wore a gray sweatshirt on the chilly morning.
188 0	swell	verb	to increase in size, especially with fluid	Her ankle began to swell after the fall.
188 1	swimmer	noun	a person who swims	The young swimmer won a gold medal at the meet.
188 2	switch	noun	device used to turn something on or off	Flip the switch to turn on the lights.
188 3	swollen	adjective	larger than normal due to fluid or air	His swollen ankle made it hard to walk.
188 4	sword	noun	weapon with a long sharp blade	The knight carried a heavy sword into battle.
188 5	sympathy	noun	feeling of care for someone's suffering	She sent a card to express her sympathy for his loss.
188 6	symptom	noun	a physical sign of illness	A high fever is a common symptom of the flu.
188 7	syndrome	noun	group of symptoms occurring together	Doctors diagnosed him with a rare genetic syndrome.
188 8	systematic	adjective	done according to a fixed plan	She took a systematic approach to organizing her files.
188 9	tablet	noun	small touchscreen computer, or a pill	She reads e-books on her tablet every night.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
189 0	takeaway	noun	food bought cooked to eat elsewhere	We ordered a curry takeaway for dinner tonight.
189 1	takeoff	noun	moment an aircraft leaves the ground	Passengers must fasten seatbelts before takeoff.
189 2	tale	noun	a story, especially an imaginative one	Grandfather told us an exciting tale before bedtime.
189 3	talented	adjective	having a natural ability to do something well	She is a talented pianist who started at age five.
189 4	talkative	adjective	tending to talk a great deal	My little sister is very talkative at dinner.
189 5	tank	noun	container for liquid, or armored vehicle	The fish tank needs cleaning once a week.
189 6	taste	noun	flavor of food, or personal preference	This soup has a rich, spicy taste.
189 7	tasteless	adjective	lacking flavor, or showing poor judgment	The soup was bland and completely tasteless.
189 8	tasty	adjective	having a pleasant, strong flavor	The homemade bread was warm and tasty.
189 9	tax	noun	money paid to the government	Every worker must pay income tax each year.
190 0	teaching	noun	the profession or act of instructing others	She has dedicated her whole career to teaching children.
190 1	teammate	noun	person on the same team as you	He passed the ball to his teammate near the goal.
190 2	teamwork	noun	combined effort of a group working together	Good teamwork helped them finish the project early.
190 3	tease	noun	person who playfully makes fun of others	Her older brother is a real tease at family dinners.
190 4	technique	noun	a particular way of doing something skillfully	The coach taught the swimmers a new breathing technique.
190 5	technological	adjective	relating to technology	The company invested heavily in technological improvements.
190 6	teen	noun	person aged between thirteen and nineteen	Most teens spend a lot of time on their phones.
190 7	telecommunication s	noun	technology of sending signals over distance	She works for a large telecommunications company in the city.
190 8	telegram	noun	message sent quickly by telegraph	He received an urgent telegram from his family overseas.
190 9	teller	noun	bank employee who handles transactions	The bank teller helped her deposit the check.
191 0	temper	noun	a tendency to become angry easily	He lost his temper after waiting for two hours.
191 1	temporary	adjective	lasting for a limited time	She found a temporary job while studying for exams.
191 2	tempt	verb	to attract someone to do something wrong	The smell of fresh cookies began to tempt him.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
191 3	tend	verb	to be likely to behave in a certain way	Children tend to imitate what their parents do.
191 4	tendency	noun	a likelihood to behave in a certain way	He has a tendency to arrive late to meetings.
191 5	tense	adjective	feeling nervous or anxious	The room felt tense before the exam results arrived.
191 6	tension	noun	a feeling of mental or emotional strain	There was noticeable tension between the two coworkers.
191 7	tent	noun	portable shelter made of fabric	They set up a tent near the lake for the weekend.
191 8	term	noun	a specific word, or a period of time	The teacher explained a new scientific term to the class.
191 9	terminal	noun	building where passengers depart or arrive	We waited near the terminal for our connecting flight.
192 0	terribly	adverb	very badly, or extremely	I feel terribly sorry for arriving so late.
192 1	terrific	adjective	excellent or very good	We had a terrific time at the beach yesterday.
192 2	terrified	adjective	extremely frightened	She was terrified of spiders as a small child.
192 3	terror	noun	extreme fear	The loud explosion filled the crowd with terror.
192 4	terrorism	noun	use of violence to achieve political goals	The government introduced new laws to fight terrorism.
192 5	thankful	adjective	feeling or showing gratitude	We are thankful for all your help this year.
192 6	theft	noun	the crime of stealing something	The store installed cameras to prevent theft.
192 7	theory	noun	an idea meant to explain something	Scientists tested the theory with several experiments.
192 8	thirst	verb	to feel a strong need to drink or desire	The travelers began to thirst after hours in the desert.
192 9	thorough	adjective	complete and careful in every detail	The mechanic gave the car a thorough inspection.
193 0	threat	noun	a statement of intent to cause harm	The company took the online threat very seriously.
193 1	threatening	adjective	suggesting danger or harm	Dark, threatening clouds gathered above the mountains.
193 2	thriller	noun	book or movie with an exciting, suspenseful plot	We watched a thriller that kept us guessing until the end.
193 3	throughout	preposition	in every part of, or during the whole time	It rained throughout the entire weekend at the campsite.
193 4	thumb	noun	the short thick finger on the hand	He hurt his thumb while closing the car door.
193 5	thump	verb	to hit something heavily with a dull sound	He began to thump on the door for help.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
193 6	thunder	noun	loud sound that follows lightning	A loud clap of thunder woke the whole house.
193 7	thunderous	adjective	extremely loud, like thunder	The crowd gave a thunderous applause after the concert.
193 8	thus	adverb	as a result, or in this way	The roads were icy, and thus the buses were delayed.
193 9	tick	noun	small check mark, or a small biting insect	She put a tick next to each finished task.
194 0	tide	noun	the regular rise and fall of the sea	The tide came in quickly and covered the sand.
194 1	tighten	verb	to make something tighter or more secure	He used a wrench to tighten the loose bolt.
194 2	tightly	adverb	in a firm way, leaving no space	She held the child's hand tightly while crossing the street.
194 3	tile	noun	flat piece used to cover floors or walls	They chose blue tile for the bathroom floor.
194 4	timely	adjective	happening at a suitable time	Her timely warning saved them from a serious mistake.
194 5	tin	noun	a soft metal, or a metal food container	She opened a tin of soup for lunch.
194 6	tiny	adjective	very small in size	A tiny kitten was hiding under the porch.
194 7	tire	verb	to become or make weary	Long meetings tend to tire everyone in the office.
194 8	tiring	adjective	causing tiredness	Moving to a new apartment was a tiring experience.
194 9	tissue	noun	soft paper for wiping, or body material	She grabbed a tissue to wipe her runny nose.
195 0	tobacco	noun	plant whose leaves are dried for smoking	Farmers in the region have grown tobacco for generations.
195 1	tongue	noun	the movable organ in the mouth used to taste	He burned his tongue on the hot soup.
195 2	toothpaste	noun	paste used to clean the teeth	She squeezed toothpaste onto her toothbrush every morning.
195 3	tornado	noun	violently rotating column of air	The tornado destroyed several houses in the small town.
195 4	toss	verb	to throw something lightly or carelessly	He decided to toss the old newspapers into the recycling bin.
195 5	total	adjective	complete, whole, or entire	The total cost of the trip surprised everyone.
195 6	totally	adverb	completely, in every way	I totally forgot about our meeting this morning.
195 7	tourism	noun	the business of attracting and serving tourists	Tourism is the main source of income for the island.
195 8	tournament	noun	a series of contests to find a winner	Our school hosted a chess tournament last weekend.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
1959	trace	noun	small mark or sign left by something	Investigators found a trace of blood on the carpet.
1960	tracksuit	noun	loose outfit worn for sports or exercise	He put on his tracksuit before going for a jog.
1961	traditionally	adverb	according to custom or tradition	Traditionally, the family gathers for dinner every Sunday.
1962	traffic jam	noun	long line of vehicles unable to move	We were stuck in a traffic jam for over an hour.
1963	tragedy	noun	an event causing great suffering or loss	The flood was a terrible tragedy for the whole village.
1964	tragic	adjective	causing or involving great sadness	The movie told a tragic story of lost love.
1965	trail	noun	a path through rough or natural country	They followed the trail through the dense forest.
1966	transfer	verb	to move something to another place or person	She had to transfer to a different train downtown.
1967	transform	verb	to change completely in form or appearance	New paint can transform an old, tired room.
1968	transformation	noun	a complete change in form or appearance	The old warehouse underwent a stunning transformation.
1969	transitional	adjective	relating to a process of change	The country entered a transitional period after the election.
1970	translate	verb	to change words from one language into another	Can you translate this letter into Spanish for me?
1971	transport	noun	the movement of people or goods	Public transport is cheap and reliable in this city.
1972	transportation	noun	system or means of moving people or goods	The city improved its public transportation network last year.
1973	trash	noun	waste material to be thrown away	Please take the trash out before you leave.
1974	travel agent	noun	person who arranges trips for customers	The travel agent booked our flights and hotel rooms.
1975	treat	noun	something special that gives pleasure	Ice cream on a hot day is a real treat.
1976	treatment	noun	medical care, or the way someone is dealt with	The hospital offers treatment for many chronic conditions.
1977	tremble	verb	to shake slightly, often from fear or cold	Her hands began to tremble before the interview started.
1978	tremendous	adjective	very great in amount or degree	The charity raised a tremendous amount of money this year.
1979	trend	noun	a general direction of change or fashion	Social media has changed the latest fashion trend.
1980	trigger	noun	part of a gun that fires it, or a cause	He pulled the trigger and the alarm went off immediately.
1981	trim	noun	small cut that neatens something, like hair	She went to the salon for a quick trim.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
198 2	triumph	noun	a great victory or achievement	Winning the championship was a huge triumph for the team.
198 3	tropical	adjective	relating to the hot regions near the equator	They vacationed on a tropical island last winter.
198 4	trumpet	noun	a brass musical instrument	He learned to play the trumpet in middle school.
198 5	trustworthy	adjective	deserving of trust; reliable	She is a trustworthy friend who always keeps her word.
198 6	tumble	verb	to fall suddenly without control	The little boy began to tumble down the grassy hill.
198 7	tuna	noun	a large edible sea fish	She made a sandwich with tuna and mayonnaise.
198 8	turbulence	noun	sudden violent movement of air or water	The plane shook due to unexpected turbulence over the mountains.
198 9	turning	noun	a point where a road branches off	Take the first turning on the left after the bridge.
199 0	turtle	noun	reptile with a hard shell living near water	We watched a turtle swim slowly across the pond.
199 1	twin	noun	one of two children born together	My twin sister and I look almost identical.
199 2	twist	noun	an unexpected change, or a curve	The movie ending had a surprising twist.
199 3	typical	adjective	having the usual qualities of a type	It was a typical rainy day in London.
199 4	typically	adverb	in a way that is usual or expected	Typically, the store closes at nine in the evening.
199 5	unable	adjective	not having the ability to do something	He was unable to finish the race due to injury.
199 6	unafraid	adjective	not feeling fear	She remained unafraid even during the loud thunderstorm.
199 7	unbelievable	adjective	very difficult to believe; astonishing	The magician's final trick was simply unbelievable.
199 8	uncertainty	noun	a state of not being sure about something	There is still great uncertainty about the weather forecast.
199 9	unclear	adjective	not easy to understand clearly	The instructions were unclear, so we called for help.
200 0	uncontrollable	adjective	impossible to control or restrain	The fire quickly became uncontrollable in the dry wind.
200 1	uncover	verb	discover or reveal something hidden	Detectives worked hard to uncover the truth behind the crime.
200 2	underage	adjective	too young, not of legal age	It is illegal to sell alcohol to underage customers.
200 3	undergo	verb	experience or go through something	She will undergo surgery next week to fix her knee.
200 4	underneath	preposition	below or under something	The cat was hiding underneath the table during the storm.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
200 5	underpants	noun	underwear worn under clothes	He packed clean underpants and socks for the trip.
200 6	undo	verb	reverse an action, unfasten	Press this button to undo your last change instantly.
200 7	undress	verb	take off one's clothes	The child started to undress before jumping into the pool.
200 8	unemployed	adjective	without a paid job	Many workers became unemployed after the factory closed down.
200 9	unemployment	noun	state of being out of work	Unemployment rose sharply during the last economic crisis.
201 0	unexpected	adjective	not expected, surprising	We received an unexpected visit from her parents yesterday.
201 1	unexpectedly	adverb	in a surprising, unplanned way	The weather changed unexpectedly during our hike in the mountains.
201 2	unfairly	adverb	in an unjust way	He felt he had been treated unfairly by his manager.
201 3	unfit	adjective	not in good shape, unsuitable	Years of smoking left him quite unfit for exercise.
201 4	unfold	verb	open out, or gradually develop	The story began to unfold as more witnesses came forward.
201 5	unfortunate	adjective	unlucky, causing regret	It was an unfortunate accident that no one could have prevented.
201 6	unfriendly	adjective	not friendly, unkind	The waiter was surprisingly unfriendly to all the customers.
201 7	unheard	adjective	not heard, or unprecedented	Such generosity was almost unheard of in that small village.
201 8	unify	verb	bring together as one	The new leader tried to unify the divided political parties.
201 9	uninterested	adjective	not interested, showing no enthusiasm	He seemed completely uninterested in the long history lecture.
202 0	uninteresting	adjective	not interesting, boring	The documentary turned out to be quite uninteresting overall.
202 1	union	noun	workers' organization, or a joining	The workers formed a union to demand better wages.
202 2	unique	adjective	one of a kind, unusual	Every snowflake is said to be unique in its shape.
202 3	unite	verb	join together as one	The two small companies decided to unite into one business.
202 4	universe	noun	all of space and everything in it	Scientists believe the universe is still expanding today.
202 5	unless	conjunction	except if, on condition that	We will cancel the picnic unless the weather improves soon.
202 6	unlikely	adjective	not likely, improbable	It seems unlikely that the team will win this match.
202 7	unlucky	adjective	having bad luck	He felt unlucky after missing the bus three times this week.
202 8	unpack	verb	take things out of a container	We need to unpack our suitcases before dinner tonight.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
2029	unpredictable	adjective	hard to predict, changeable	Mountain weather can be extremely unpredictable at this time of year.
2030	unrelated	adjective	not connected to something else	The two incidents turned out to be completely unrelated events.
2031	untidy	adjective	not neat, messy	His bedroom was always untidy despite his mother's complaints.
2032	unusually	adverb	in an unusual, notable way	It was unusually warm for a winter afternoon in the city.
2033	unwanted	adjective	not wanted or welcome	The shelter takes care of unwanted pets from around the city.
2034	unwell	adjective	sick, not feeling healthy	She stayed home from work because she felt unwell.
2035	up-to-date	adjective	modern, having the latest information	Please keep your contact details up-to-date in the system.
2036	update	verb	make current, add new information	The app will automatically update itself overnight while you sleep.
2037	uplifted	adjective	feeling happier or more hopeful	Her kind words left me feeling uplifted for the rest of the day.
2038	upload	verb	send data to a server or internet	Please upload your photos to the shared folder before Friday.
2039	upper	adjective	higher in position or rank	She lives on the upper floor of an old apartment building.
2040	upward	adjective	moving toward a higher place	The company reported an upward trend in sales this quarter.
2041	urge	noun	a strong desire or impulse	She fought the urge to check her phone during the meeting.
2042	urgent	adjective	needing immediate action	He received an urgent message asking him to call back immediately.
2043	usage	noun	the way something is used	Water usage tends to increase significantly during hot summer months.
2044	used to	auxiliary	describes a past habit or state	I used to play football every weekend when I was younger.
2045	useless	adjective	having no use or value	This old phone is useless now that the battery won't charge.
2046	vacancy	noun	an unoccupied job or room	The hotel had one vacancy left for the weekend.
2047	vague	adjective	not clear or precise	His answer was too vague to give us any real information.
2048	vain	adjective	excessively proud, or useless	He made a vain attempt to fix the broken engine.
2049	valuable	adjective	worth a lot, very useful	The necklace was far more valuable than she had realized.
2050	van	noun	a medium-sized vehicle for goods	The delivery van pulled up outside the store early morning.
2051	variety	noun	a number of different types	The market offers a wide variety of fresh fruits and vegetables.
2052	various	adjective	several different kinds	We discussed various options before choosing the final design.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
205 3	vary	verb	differ or change	Prices vary depending on the season and the location.
205 4	vast	adjective	extremely large in size	The desert stretched out into a vast, empty landscape.
205 5	vegetarian	adjective	not eating meat or fish	The restaurant offers several tasty vegetarian dishes on its menu.
205 6	vehicle	noun	a machine for transporting people	Every vehicle must pass a safety inspection each year.
205 7	vein	noun	blood vessel carrying blood to the heart	The nurse found a vein easily to draw his blood.
205 8	vessel	noun	a ship, or a container	The fishing vessel returned to port after two weeks at sea.
205 9	vet	noun	a doctor for animals	We took our dog to the vet for his annual checkup.
206 0	via	preposition	by way of, through	We flew to Tokyo via Seoul to save some money.
206 1	vice	adjective	deputy, next in rank	She was recently promoted to vice chairman of the board.
206 2	vice president	noun	the deputy to a president	The vice president gave a speech at the annual conference.
206 3	victim	noun	a person harmed by a crime or event	The victim described the accident to the police in detail.
206 4	victory	noun	an act of winning	The team celebrated their victory with a huge parade downtown.
206 5	video clip	noun	a short piece of video	She shared a funny video clip with all her friends online.
206 6	viewpoint	noun	a person's opinion or perspective	Everyone in the debate presented a different viewpoint on the issue.
206 7	violence	noun	physical force that hurts or damages	The film was criticized for its excessive scenes of violence.
206 8	violently	adverb	in a forceful, aggressive way	The wind shook the old house violently throughout the night.
206 9	virtual	adjective	existing only in computer form	Students attended the lecture through a virtual classroom this semester.
207 0	virus	noun	a germ that causes disease	The flu virus spread quickly through the crowded school.
207 1	visa	noun	official document allowing entry to a country	We need to apply for a visa before our trip abroad.
207 2	visible	adjective	able to be seen	The mountain peak was clearly visible from our hotel window.
207 3	vision	noun	ability to see, or a future idea	Her vision improved greatly after she got new glasses.
207 4	visual	adjective	relating to sight or seeing	The presentation relied heavily on visual aids like charts and photos.
207 5	visually	adverb	in a way relating to sight	The new design is visually more appealing than the old one.
207 6	vivid	adjective	very bright, clear, and detailed	She still has vivid memories of her childhood summers by the sea.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
207 7	vividly	adverb	in a bright, clear manner	He described the accident so vividly that everyone felt they were there.
207 8	volcano	noun	a mountain that can erupt lava	The volcano had not erupted for over a hundred years.
207 9	volume	noun	loudness of sound, or amount of space	Please turn down the volume, the music is too loud.
208 0	volunteer	verb	offer to do something freely	Many students volunteer at the shelter every weekend during summer.
208 1	vowel	noun	a letter like a, e, i, o, u	Every syllable in English usually contains at least one vowel.
208 2	voyage	noun	a long journey, especially by sea	The ship set sail on a long voyage across the Atlantic.
208 3	wagon	noun	a four-wheeled cart for loads	Farmers used a wooden wagon to carry hay across the field.
208 4	ward	noun	a hospital section, or a district	Her grandmother was moved to a private ward at the hospital.
208 5	wardrobe	noun	a cupboard for clothes	She bought a new wardrobe for her winter clothes.
208 6	warmly	adverb	in a friendly, affectionate way	The host welcomed her guests warmly at the front door.
208 7	warmth	noun	moderate heat, or friendliness	She felt the warmth of the fire as soon as she entered.
208 8	warn	verb	tell someone of possible danger	The lifeguard tried to warn swimmers about the strong current.
208 9	warning	noun	a statement about possible danger	The government issued a warning about the coming storm.
209 0	warranty	noun	a written guarantee for a product	The laptop still had six months left on its warranty.
209 1	warrior	noun	a person experienced in fighting	The ancient warrior was famous for his courage in battle.
209 2	washbowl	noun	a basin for washing hands or face	He filled the washbowl with warm water to wash his face.
209 3	waste	adjective	unused, discarded, or extra	The factory dumped waste material into the nearby river illegally.
209 4	wasteful	adjective	using things carelessly, excessively	Leaving all the lights on all night is quite wasteful.
209 5	waterfall	noun	water falling from a height	Tourists took photos in front of the enormous waterfall.
209 6	wax	noun	a soft substance for candles, polish	She melted the wax to make a new candle at home.
209 7	weakness	noun	lack of strength, or a fault	Everyone has a weakness that they try to hide from others.
209 8	weapon	noun	a tool used to cause harm	The suspect was arrested for carrying an illegal weapon.
209 9	weather forecast	noun	a prediction of future weather	The weather forecast promised sunshine for the entire weekend.
210 0	webcam	noun	a camera connected to a computer	She turned on her webcam to join the online meeting.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
210 1	weird	adjective	strange or unusual	There was a weird smell coming from the kitchen this morning.
210 2	well-dressed	adjective	wearing fashionable, good clothes	A well-dressed man walked confidently into the fancy restaurant.
210 3	westward	adverb	toward the west	The pioneers traveled westward across the plains in search of land.
210 4	wetland	noun	land saturated with water	The wetland is home to hundreds of different bird species.
210 5	whale	noun	a very large sea mammal	We were lucky enough to see a whale from the boat.
210 6	whenever	adverb	at any time, every time	Call me whenever you need help with your homework.
210 7	wherever	conjunction	in or to any place	You can sit wherever you like in this classroom.
210 8	whether	conjunction	expressing doubt between options	I am not sure whether she will come to the party.
210 9	whichever	determiner	any one, no matter which	Take whichever seat you prefer near the window.
211 0	whisper	noun	a very quiet way of speaking	She spoke in a whisper so no one else could hear.
211 1	whistle	noun	a shrill sound from blowing air	The referee blew his whistle to stop the game.
211 2	whoever	pronoun	any person, no matter who	Whoever finishes first will receive a small prize.
211 3	widespread	adjective	found over a large area	The disease caused widespread panic across the entire region.
211 4	wildlife	noun	wild animals in their habitat	The national park protects a wide range of local wildlife.
211 5	wildly	adverb	in an uncontrolled, extreme manner	The crowd cheered wildly when the singer walked on stage.
211 6	willingness	noun	readiness or eagerness to do something	He showed great willingness to help his new coworkers.
211 7	windscreen	noun	the front glass window of a car	A stone cracked the windscreen while we were driving.
211 8	windsurfing	noun	a water sport with a sailboard	They spent the whole afternoon windsurfing along the coast.
211 9	wing	noun	the part used for flying	The bird injured its wing and could not fly properly.
212 0	wire	noun	a thin metal strand for electricity	An electrician replaced the old wire behind the wall.
212 1	wither	verb	become dry and shrivelled	Without water, the flowers began to wither within days.
212 2	witness	verb	see something happen	Several people claimed to witness the accident at the intersection.
212 3	wizard	adjective	highly skilled at something	My brother is a wizard programmer who fixes anything quickly.
212 4	working	adjective	functioning, or relating to work	We finally found a working printer in the office.

#	Word	Type	Meaning	Example sentence
212 5	workout	noun	a session of physical exercise	She does a quick workout at the gym every morning.
212 6	workplace	noun	the place where one works	The company improved safety conditions at the workplace last year.
212 7	workshop	noun	a room for making things, or training	He fixed the bike in his small workshop behind the house.
212 8	worn	adjective	damaged from long use	His shoes were so worn that his socks got wet.
212 9	worth	adjective	having value, deserving of	This old painting is probably worth a lot of money.
213 0	worthwhile	adjective	deserving time, effort, or money	Learning a new language is always a worthwhile investment of time.
213 1	worthy	adjective	deserving respect or attention	The charity supports many worthy causes around the world.
213 2	wound	noun	an injury, especially a cut	The doctor cleaned the wound carefully before bandaging it.
213 3	wrap	noun	material for covering, or a rolled sandwich	She ordered a chicken wrap for lunch at the cafe.
213 4	wrapping	noun	material used to wrap something	He tore off the wrapping to see what was inside the gift.
213 5	wrist	noun	the joint between hand and arm	She sprained her wrist while playing tennis last weekend.
213 6	wristwatch	noun	a watch worn on the wrist	He received a gold wristwatch as a graduation gift.
213 7	written	adjective	produced in writing, not spoken	Candidates must pass a written exam before the interview stage.
213 8	yell	noun	a loud shout or cry	A loud yell came from the crowd when the goal was scored.
213 9	yoga	noun	exercises for body and mind wellbeing	She practices yoga every morning to stay calm and flexible.